DEDICATION

We, the senior class of 1938, dedicate the Black and Gold to you, our parents. We are dedicating only a book, the memory of one precious year. You have consecrated to us a lifetime of love and service, with the hope that we, in the future, may complete the tasks you have begun and fulfill the dreams that you have cherished for us. You have given to us a torch of ideals and ambitions. It is our duty and our privilege to bear it upward, to lift high the token of your love, and to send out a clearer, brighter light along the path of progress. Thus, may we prove worthy of our heritage and feel that in some measure we have merited your faith in us.

SENIOR HISTORY

In the fall of 1934 seventy-two supposedly green freshmen entered F. H. S. to shock the upper-classmen with their intelligence!

The class officers for this year were: Harold Pernod, president; George Ratliff, vice-president; Dorothy Brown, treasurer; George Siegel, secretary; Le-Moyne Shane, social chairman.

The class enjoyed a combined swimming and theatre party at Huntington, the first semester and a skating party at Anderson the second semester.

It was a much wiser group that entered their sophomore year with the class president, Harold Pernod; Maxine Smith, vice-president, and with Berniece Moore as secretary and Bonnie Ballinger as treasurer.

In the jolly junior year the president was again Harold Pernod, Maxine Smith, vice-president, and secretary, Berniece Moore, with Eleanor Jones as treasurer. This year the class felt more grown up and they presented a play, "Murdered Alive." They also sponsored a movie and a magician to make money for the junior and senior trip to Turkey Run.

Their last and final year at F. H. S. with fifty students remaining of the seventy-two, was considered their biggest year. They were at the top now and felt that they were grown up, even if they didn't act like it.

This year the class officers were the same as the junior year. They gave a play, "Another Spring", which was the high-light of the year.

They also won the inter-class track meet "Flag Day" which was the fourth year of victory, at the meets.

And now all the class wish F. H. S. good luck and adios.

Pupils everywhere reciting,

Chewing gum and throwing papers,

Everyone is cutting capers.

Teachers often in despair.

There is always reprimanding,

Pupils need some understanding;

But in spite of this ado,

Pupils still do go to school.

Senior Prophecy

On a bright afternoon in May, 1945, a young lady walks nervously to and fro in the waiting room of the Municipal Airport in Indianapolis. The manager of the airport, noticing the young lady's excitement, hurriedly asks her what the trouble is. "Oh, you see I have an appointment in New York City to make an audition at the Metropolitian Opera House. I'm afraid I'll be late."

The manager, who has been watching her closely, asks, "Aren't you Berniece Moore?" "Why, yes," she answers. "Remember me? I'm Harry Underwood." "Oh, of course. This is a coincidence, isn't it?"

Just then the plane comes roaring into view. Amid exclamations that she must hurry, Harry helps her in the plane and calls, "Lots of luck, Berniece." As the plane soars from the field, Berniece settles back in her seat, prepared for the journey. After reading a magazine a while, she grows restless, and begins looking around at her fellow passengers. A young man, sitting across the aisle, looks strangely familiar, and when he speaks she recognizes him as George Siegel. "You are going to sing at the Metropolitan Opera House tonight, aren't you? There are a group of us on the plane going especially to hear you. Shall we go into the recreation room? Perhaps we shall find them." As they walk back to meet the rest of the group, George tells her of his position of being Mayor of Fairmount. "Upon graduating from F. H. S., I was unanimously appointed to this position. My wife, the former Anne Morrish, and Mr. and Mrs. James Brewer, Mrs. Brewer was formorly Miss Eleanor Jones, came with us. Here they are now."

After talking over old times, the hours pass quickly and the plane arrives in New York in a short time. Berniece discovers that she has plenty of time before her audition, so the group of friends decide to go to a theatre and take in a movie. The usher, very tall and dark, is soon recognized as a graduate of the '38 class—Clayton Terwilliger. They talk a few minutes, then Clayton informs the group that the manager of the theatre is George Ratliff and his assistant is Bill Seale, while Dorothy Spence is his private secretary. "If you would like to see them, I'd be glad to call them," said Clayton. Soon George and Dorothy come and talk things over with their former classmates. George says, "Have you noticed one of the leading characters in this film is a girl who was in our class?

Eleanor excitedly exclaims, "Why, yes, isn't that Dorothy Brown?" "Yes. Some directors believe that she will be as great as Hepburn some day," answers George.

Dorothy suggests, "Why don't we all go get something to eat, then we can talk about our former classmates; I would like to know what they are doing now." They all readily agree to the idea, so they go to the biggest restaurant in New York. After they are through eating, George asks:

"Do any of you know what the rest of our classmates are doing now? I often wonder about them."

George Siegel answers "Robert Fox and his wife, the former Bonnie Ballenger, lives on a three hundred acres farm west of Fairmount, his hired hand is Walter Stinger and their cook is Mildred Holloway, Ralph McCracken and his wife, the former Madelene Mayer, is the minister at Little Ridge Church."

Dorothy Spence replies "Martha Payne is also a dress designer in Paris and Wilma Carey models her dresses. Delight Stroup and Ruth Thompson are now

Compliments of Adams Products, Inc. singing with Tommy Dorsey's Orchestra over WLW." Clayton Terwilliger chimes in with "Yes, when I was walking down the street last evening here in New York, much to my surprise I ran into Robert Gift, Junior Hodson, Kenneth Hiatt and Kenneth Hipes, the Rhythm Boys, now starring once a week with Jack Benny's program on the Jello hour. Betty Davis has taken Gracie Allen's place on what used to be the Burns and Allen program and Ann Voorhis styles women's clothes for Ayres at Indianapolis. They tell me Nellie Whetstine is Fairmount's new doctor, and her assistant is Doris Thurston.

"They are doing financially well," replies Mrs. Siegel, "and there seems to be someone else. Oh, yes, that is, Lolita Townsend and Mary Helen Carey are nurses in the Riley hospital in Indianapolis."

Mrs. Siegel, the former Anne Morrish asks, "Do any of you know about Maxine Smith, Violet Holloway, Lucille Loer and Jeane Snyder? I have often wondered about them, too. "Yes," replies Mrs. Brewer, "I can tell you about them. Maxine Smith is the private secretary of Mayor George Siegel of Fairmount, Violet Holloway and Lucille Loer are Grant county's Cooking Instructors for the General Electric of Marion, Indiana. Miss Snyder is Editor-in-Chief of the Life Magazine."

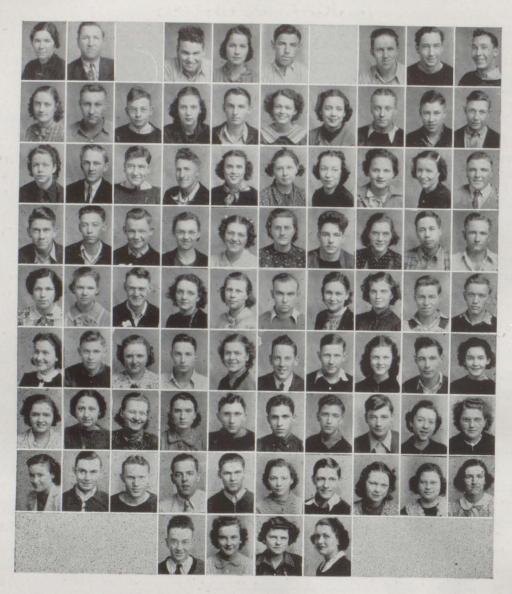

James Brewer finally ventures, "Do any of you know about Howard Metzger, James McCartney, Robert Gift and Harold Pernod?" Harry Underwood, "Why yes, Howard Metzger and Robert Gift are now the owners of the old Mould Shop in Fairmount. You remember how glad we were to get out of Civics class when we were Freshmen one afternoon to visit the Mould Shop? Who would ever thought that these boys would now be owners? And Harold Pernod, you remember, was chosen the most valuable player to our basketball team in the year of '38, is now the Athletic Coach at Indiana University, and James McCartney owns a 1,000-acre cattle ranch in Texas and his helpers are Dick Elliott and Walter Stinger, they still remain bachelors."

"You remember Mildred Whetstine, she is Matron of the Orphan's Home in Grant County, and Charles Carder, the last newcomer to our class in '38 is Fairmount's night watchman. I think that includes everyone in our class, doesn't it?" Bill Seale, "No, we forgot to mention one and that is Morris Nickolson. He is County Auditor of Tipton county."

George Ratliff heaves a sigh and remarks, "Isn't it fine that all the members of our class have accomplished so much for themselves?" Then Berniece Moore burst forth, "Oh, it is only twenty minutes until my audition, we must hurry.

They all take a taxi back to the Opera House. The Opera House is well crowded for Berniece's first performance. After she makes her appearance the loud applause proves that she is on her road to success. Berniece decided to remain in New York with Metropolitan Opera House, so goes with her guests to the plane to bid them goodbye and invites them to come and see her again. Just then the plane roars from the field, they wave as far as they can see each other. Berniece returns to her headquarters feeling quite lonely that her former classmates have departed from her, but feeling quite pleased that she knows what they are all doing.

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

With Miss Martin and Mr. Gotschall acting as sponsors, approximately eighty-five juniors composed the class of 1940.

Rex Nach, Jr., was again chosen to head the class with MacLove as vice-president, and Martha Parsons, secretary-treasurer.

One of the main attractions during the year was the annual junior play. This year "Comin' Thru the Rye" was presented and proved very successful in spite of inclement weather conditions. Those who took part in the play were: Donna Ruth Couch, Rex Nash, Jr., Richard Meredith, Oral McGraw, Jr., Martha Parson, Herbert Howell, Patty Bond, Freda Turner, Harriett Knight, Martha Jane Dale, Faith Hackney, and Clyde Brookshire.

Some of the other junior activities have been a Valentine Box Social, which was held on February 14, in the gym with the whole school attending.

In the way of individual honors the juniors have received some worth mentioning. Donna Ruth Couch placed second in the District Latin Contest, and Albert Velasquez represented the school in algebra in the District Mathematics Contest.

The juniors have made note-worthy contributions to every field of athletics, but perhaps Charles Smith is the most outstanding athlete of his class.

Plans are rapidly being drawn up for the junior-senior trip, and the class is anxiously awaiting its senior year in F. H. S.

SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY

A group of eighty-five sophomores were enrolled in F. H. S. last September with Miss Robinson and Mr. Arbuckle as sponsors.

Not long after that they elected Xen Harvey, president; Betty Creek, vice-president; Paul Weaver, secretary-treasurer; Social Chairman, Bill Broderick; and Bob Pernod, athletic director.

The first of their activities was a Hallowe'en Party in Young's barn and the second social event was a Skating Party at Idyl Wyld Skating Rink on February 9.

When elections were being held for Student Council Representatives, Donna Jean Peterson and Charles Wood were selected to represent the sophomore class.

In nearly every field where honors were awarded the sophomores always had their share. Max Salisbury was acclaimed the single champion ping-pong player in the County, with Howard Nesbitt and Max Salisbury as runners up for the double title. Doris Compton represented F. H. S. in the County Latin Contest. Three sophomores, Doris Compton, Robert Carey and Robert Mc-Manaman went to Muncie for the District Mathematics contest, and the Debate team was composed largely of sophomores, namely Joe Ribble, Doris Compton, Evadene Perry, Uva Underwood, and Xen Harvey.

The class of '40 has already begun to make plans for their junior year and are awaiting the oncoming years in F. H. S. with great enthusiasm. Here's to their continued success!

FRESHMAN CLASS HISTORY

Last fall seventy-five supposedly "green young things" were enrolled in F. H. S. as freshmen. Some forty-five of this group had spent the previous two years here, but the remaining thirty entered from the surrounding townships.

Miss Carter and Mr. Wood were appointed to act as sponsors, and James Payne was elected president with Robert Scott, vice-president; Robert Gossett, secretary-treasurer; and Doran Smith as social chairman.

The freshmen soon proved their worth by winning the prize for making the best appearance as a class in the parade at the Fairmount Fall Festival. Both of their social activities were in the form of skating parties at the Idyl Wyld Skating Rink.

The class was properly initiated in F. H. S. on Freshman-Senior day when the "scums" were compelled to obey the will of the "mighties."

The other highlight of the Freshman program was "Freshman Flag Day" when a half-day holiday was declared and the inter-class track meet was held. A worthwhile and happy career in F. H. S. is our wish for each member of the class of '41.

The eighth graders joined the seventh at their skating party which was the sole social venture of the year for the eighth grade.

This group was also represented on the undefeated Junior High basketball team this year.

ting into the swing of things. Mr. McTurnan and Mr. Bush were appointed to act as sponsors, and since there was no business to be taken care of the class selected only one officer; Fred Shane, president.

Their first party of the year was a Theatre Party at the downtown theatre and in the early spring they enjoyed a skating party at Idyl Wyld.

One of their outstanding attributes was a Junior High Team which was undefeated in its scheduled games.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

Paul Weaver, "Shorty", Sophomore forward; "Shorty" has two more years to play good basketball for Fairmount High.

Forrest Smith, "Timber", Junior, guard;
Timber came up from the second team and will be hard to handle next year.

Bob, after a summer's growth will be a very tough customer.

ATHLETICS

The Grant County Softball Tournament was held October 1, at Van Buren. Six teams entered the tournament with Fairmount drawing Sweetser. Sweetser forfeited to Fairmount putting Fairmount in the semi-finals. Fairmount had to play Gas City and defeated them by a large margin, giving Fairmount a place in the finals playing Van Buren. In the last inning Fairmount entered with a four point lead. Van Buren won the Grant County Softball Championship by defeating the Quaker team 7 to 8. Fairmount held the softball crown in the county last year.

FAIRMOUNT RELAYS

Miss Dorothy Brown, a Senior of Fairmount, was chosen as Queen of the Fourth Annual Fairmount Relays. Her four attendants were Hilda Mitchener, Patty Bond, Harriett Knight, and Martha Parson, from the Junior class. They awarded the ribbons for the first four places and the trophies to the winning school.

The Fourth Annual Fairmount Relays were held at the fairgrounds on the afternoon of May 7, 1938. Six schools, namely, Pendleton, Montpelier, Jonesboro, Fairmount, Gas City and Mount Summit, were entered. Fairmount, the host school, won the relay. Pendleton, Gas City, Jonesboro, Montpelier, and Muncie, each entered a freshmen relay team. A few of the old relay records were broken such as the shot put formerly held by Boyd Nelson of Van Buren, 45 feet and 5 inches, being broken by Gaddis with a put of 46 feet 4½ inches. The 200-yard low hurdles formerly being held by Verl Overshiner was broken by Chuck Smith, with a record of 23.7 seconds. The pole vault formerly held by Oately and Mart was broken in a tie by Kindall and Brien, at 10 feet and 9½ inches. The 120-yard high hurdles was broken by Meyer of Gas City, 15.6 seconds. And two relay records were broken by Montpelier. The final count found Fairmount winning with 48 points, Gas City 43, Montpelier 38, Pendleton and Jonesboro failed to place.

Ping Pong

Nesbitt and Salisbury

Ping-pong was a favorite sport at F. H. S. during the winter months with several outstanding players.

Max Salisbury won the county tournament held at Sweetser, February 5. Vaughn Titus was the runner-up.

In the doubles, Howard Nesbitt and Max Salisbury were the winners.

Katherine Snyder and Dorothy Courter entered the girls' division and made a creditable showing.

QUAKER TOAST

To F. H. S., our Alma Mater, we pledge our loyalty.

Our Black and Gold, we'll always cheer you wherever we may be.

To F. H. S. we sing our praises,

Shout with all our might,

Win or lose, we're for you,

Quakers, fight!

Best Wishes from Snider Packing Corp.

THE SQUAD

I

On one Friday night in November Five fighting Quakers took the floor Their ultimate object of course Was to win fairly, but by a huge score.

II

Through some twenty games these boys fought, Winners in some but not all; But did defeat daunt their spirit? Not once without fight did they fall.

III

There's our good coach "Gotsch"
Who is "tops" with all the boys.
He's for them in victory or defeat
And shares with them their sorrows and joys.

IV

A power behind the throne is this man Elliott, He cares for the tickets and the dough; Athletic Director is his title And the duties of such, he certainly does know.

V

Long, lean, and lanky was our center, Jim, He has a steady and dependable pace. He is gone now and we'll miss him, We wonder who'll take his place.

VI

"Timber" was a flashy forward, Always on the go; He has another year to play! So beware, you mighty foe!

VII

A new varsity member was Nash Whose eye for baskets was keen; Since he was only a Junior, We predict that next year he'll be seen.

VIII

"Shorty" was our hot-shot, small but mighty, A squarer fellow never played the game; He will be remembered by both friend and foe, and With us for two more years, he'll remain.

With Our Compliments

IX

There was "Pedad," a Senior who filled his berth well, A guard, voted most valuable to team: His place next year will be hard to fill, And an honor worth trying to redeem.

X

"Satan" rates well on the team, His ability to hit was great. He has another year with us, So his return we'll all await.

XI

"Cornie" was the youngest one on the squad, And he really looked great this year; He's both tall and fast And one for opponents to fear.

XII

Ratliff, a Senior, had lots of tough luck, He was ill the last of the season; His loss will be felt keenly next year And from his records, not without reason.

XIII

"Beef" was a reserve and a dependable one, Who could fill about any position. He will be back again next year And he's sure to be in condition.

XIV

Brewer was a guard, stalwart and strong, Whose aim was steady and true; He, too, is a Senior and won't be back, Here's "So long and good luck to you."

XV

Our blonde lad "Giftie" played a nice game And was a good sport as well; He, too, we'll be missing next year And who'll replace him is hard to tell.

XVI

Jake was a flashy Junior lad, Two more years in school, he had, But sickness took him down until Another place we had to fill.

With Our Best Wishes

E. M. Miller

XVII

The smallest yet was Harry Craw, A faster lad you never saw. His eye was keen, his mind alert, Although he was a little "squirt."

XVIII

Seigel started out with a bang, But Holliday's voice disgruntledly rang; His heart is bad, his pressure high, "It was too bad," we all did sigh.

XIX

Now there's McKee, a varsity man, A berth next year is the general plan; We hope this happens, 'twill likely be So we all say, "Welcome, McKee."

XX

To be sure, we mustn't miss Underwood, As student manager he was really good; He looked after the jerseys with every care, To the boys he was known as "Underwear."

XXI

These boys have made up the squad Throughout the year '37 and '38: Several of them will return to F. H. S. While many others will graduate. But to all of those boys who have fought For the glory of their school, we say, "You're swell and hard to beat, and To you we owe a debt we can never pay."

SENIOR CLASS SONG

Oh, we're seniors, we're jolly seniors, Stalwart seniors and winners too. We will fight for the crown of laurels And the glory of Fairmount too. Never daunted, we cannot falter Through the battle we'll try most true All the honor and all the glory Dear old Fairmount to win for you. Rah! Rah!

Top Row—Fox, Sellers, Brown, Scripture.

The first county tennis tournament of its kind was held on the nights of September 21-22 under the lights at Fairmount. Vaughn Titus, sophomore, of Fairmount, played in the final match with Smith of Sweetser. Titus was defeated by a small margin 17 to 19 to make Smith the new county champion. James Ribble of Fairmount was the former holder of this title.

In its scheduled games Fairmount defeated Hartford City, Gas City, and Jefferson Township and they were defeated by Wabash and Burris of Muncie.

During the season a tennis ladder was kept and Fred Scripture was ranked as the superior player.

An inter-class match was held with Paul Weaver as class champ. Most of the players that took part were freshmen or sophomores who looked promising for next year.

Volleyball came into its own this year as a fast and exciting sport.

A county tournament was held at Swayzee for the first time March 18 and 19. Fairmount entered a team under the direction of Mr. McTurnan.

Fairmount defeated Sweetser easily, then entered the semi-finals. In a close game, the Quakers were defeated by Gas City.

Fairmount Boy Scout Troop was chartered December 31, 1927, as Troop

Number 20 of the Meshingomenia Council.

In August, 1928, Reverend Conde Hile, pastor of the Methodist Church, became Scout Master, with Howard Patton and Joseph Shaffer as assistants. Since this time Troop 20 has been a very active troop with an average membership of thirty boys. The troop has received state recognition on various occasions. At Butler University they received a banner for 100 per cent attendance at a football game. On two other occasions they placed second as the best appearing troop at Indiana University, Scout Day.

Since the troop is sponsored by the school, the scout master and assistants are usually school men. The exception to this rule, however, occurred when Reverend Hadly of the Friends Church was Scout Master, and again when Maurice Pernod took over the duties after Reverend Hadly resigned.

For the past three years Mr. Gotschall has been Scout Master, ably assisted by Mr. Kilgore and Mr. Seward.

The troop committee and their troop assignment is as follows:

1. F. Stanton Galey, chairman and supervisor of activities.

2. H. E. McCartney, Promotion and Advance activities.

3. Oz. Wilson, Equipment and Finance activities.

4. Parvin Bond, Publicity.

5. Lafe Ribble, Hikes and Summer Camp.

The troop meets each Monday evening at 7:30 in the High School assembly.

An annual activity for troop 20 is the placing of the wreath on the soldiers marker each Armistice Day.

At present we have tenderfeet, second class, first class and star scouts.

STUDENT COUNCIL

First Row—Jones, Fox, Williams, Ribble, Wood, Wimmer.
Second Row—Peterson, Leer, Sutton, Payne, Mart, Linville, Mr. McTurnan.

About the beginning of the second semester of school, it was thought advisable to reorganize the once active Student Council. Mr. McTurnan was appointed to sponsor the group and each class appointed two representatives. Eleanor Jones and Robert Fox were named from the senior class. Thelma Williams and Basil Wimmer were selected by the juniors. Donna Jean Peterson and Charles Wood were representatives of the sophomore, and Mary Linville and Ralph Williams were chosen by the freshmen.

The purpose of the Student Council was to further co-operation and understanding between the member student body and the faculty.

Soon after the reorganization the council planned a five weeks attendance contest and this group should be functioning readily this year.

HI-Y CLUB

The Hi-Y Club began this year with about a dozen old members. New members were added in September and later in January until the number has reached twenty-nine.

At the beginning of the school year the club sponsored a book exchange which enabled students to obtain used books at low cost and supplied a small revenue for the club treasury.

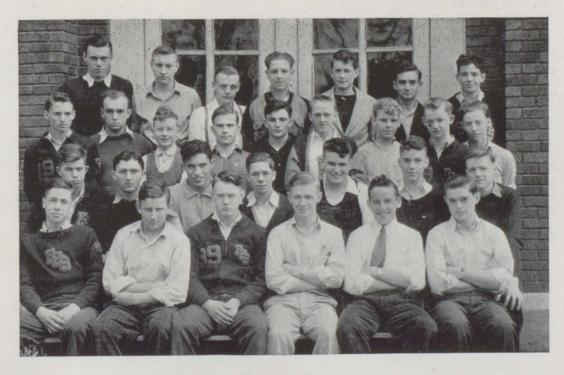

Compliments of L. D. Holliday

The club had three representatives at the State Hi-Y conference at Peru in November, eleven representatives at the State Y. M. C. A. Convention at Marion in March, one representative at the Hi-Y officers conference at Indianapolis in April, and has arranged to send a representative to the National Hi-Y Congress at Berea, Kentucky, in June.

The club has met regularly each week and its programs have been in keeping with the purpose of the club, i. e., to maintain high standards of Christian character throughout the school and community.

A course in Bible Study was followed during the season of Lent and climaxed in the annual banquet and second degree initiation ceremony held at the Friends Church in the latter part of April.

The officers for the year were: President, Rex Nash, Jr.; Vice-President, Basil Wimmer; Secretary, Ralph McCracken; Treasurer, Robert Fox; Sergeant-at-arms, James Gaddis.

First Row—Gaddis, Brookshire, Stinger, Reeves, Edwards, Fox, Kelsay.

DEBATE CLUB

This was the second year for Fairmount High School to be a member of the Indiana State Debating League. The club was naturally far more successful than the year before. Along with the regular work on the debate question the club enjoyed three social gatherings. The officers of the club were:

President-Xen Harvey.

Vice-President-Martha Jane Dale.

Secretary-Treasurer—Donna Ruth Couch.

We had two active debating teams. The affirmative team consisted of Donna Ruth Couch, Doris Compton and Uva Underwood acting as silent alternative

Several of the club members attended the Purdue Debating Conference last December. The high point of this trip was the Purdue-Wisconsin debate upon the nationally accepted high school debate question—Resolved: That the several states should adopt a unicameral form of legislature. The teams themselves participated in inter-school debates. One was with Union Township High School, held here and the other with Greentown High School there. The teams were also in two tournaments. The annual Anderson invitational tourney took place in January; then our state district tournament was in Elwood the last part of February.

The objective for debate club as accepted by the club are as follows:

1. To speak effectively.

2. To think clearly.

3. To discover the truth.

4. To act according to your thinking.

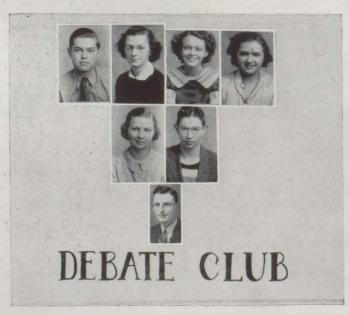

5. To sift out the unimportant from the important.

6. To develop confidence.

7. To learn how to work with others.

- 8. To learn how to see both sides of a question.
- 9. To develop more decisive or firm character.
- 10. To enjoy the exercise of a mental game.

During the first semester the girls and boys met separately two days a week. The second semester, they met together two days a week and met separately one day a week.

In the last semester they enjoyed a Roller Skating party at Marion.

The Girls' Glee Club sang on High School night at the Methodist Church during Revival Week. Both Glee Clubs took part in a musical convocation the last week of school.

TRADITIONAL SCHOOL SONG

Down in central Indiana,

Oh, there is a grand old high school;

And it's known throughout the state both far and wide.

There's a patriotic something makes your heart go thumping, thumping,

At the mention of our dear old F. H. S.

Every drop of blood will liven,

Everyone will stop their sighing,

It's the best high in the state you must confess;

So here's three cheers for the F. H. S.

Here's to the black and here's to the gold,

Here's to the fellows on our team,

Long may their victories ever gleam.

There are no foes we can't defeat,

Oh, Fairmount high school can't be beat,

So here's three cheers for future years

And for the dear old F. H. S.
