DEDICATION

The Oakleaves staff of Summitville in this year of nineteen fifty-four do proudly dedicate this yearbook to our sponsor, Mr. Arthur Gossett.

Mr. Gossett has been teaching in this school for the past twenty-nine years. He has been very active in all school activities and has been ready to help at all times.

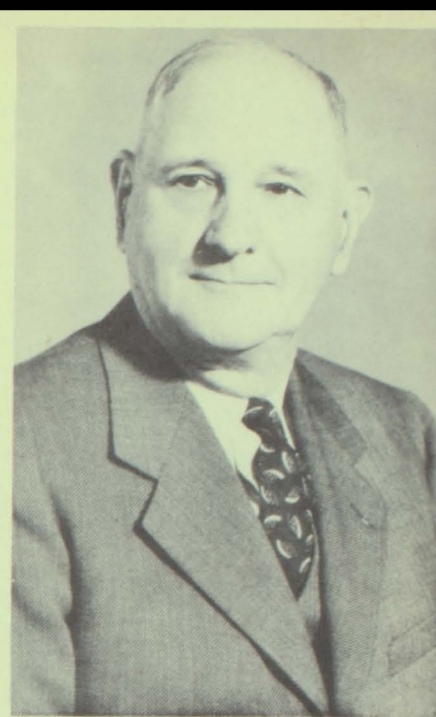

Administration

Don Pope

This is Mr. Pope's first year as principal here at S. H. S. During the year, he has made many friends and many improvements in the school. These are appreciated by all of us. Mr. Pope is married and is the father of two children, Jimmy, age 5 1/2, and Leann, age 20 months.

Gates Long

Mr. Long is completing his seventh year as trustee of Van Buren Township. During his term of office, many improvements have been made in the building and equipment. We feel he has made an excellent trustee and has the interest of our school at heart.

Seniors

Senior Class History

On September 14, 1942, thirty-one small children entered Miss Dolly's room to be cared for and started on their way up. Among those students were Lulabelle Briley, Joyce Bright, Roy Danforth, Larry Forrest, Radford Garrett, O. M. Goodman, Joyce Hollingsworth, Barbara Leachman, James Merritt, Janice Treadway, Donald Vctor, and Garry Webster.

In the fall of 1943, we were feeling more at ease when Miss Wolfe took us under her watchful eye for our second year of school.

Miss Achsah Smith kept vigilance over us while we drilled on our multiplication tables and improved our grammar. That year Marilyn Greenlee and Ewell White joined us.

During our fourth year at Oak Grove, we were taught by Mrs. Anna Tanselle. Bill Yeagy joined our increasing class.

We progressed onward now to the fifth grade, where we were taught by Miss Florence Tappan. Patty Cunningham and Mary McCune joined us as we tried for the sixth grade. Carmel Mann taught us this year and helped us to consume more knowledge.

We had been losing and gaining a few students each year, so as we went into our seventh year of school, Joyce Saubert joined us as we were taught by several teachers. George Johnson was our sponsor.

Now feeling very proud of ourselves, we were looking forward to our graduation from grade school. Again we had several teachers. Miss Joanne Nixon was our sponsor. We gained Mary Hall and Richard Schuyler, and, again, Lulabelle Briley—who couldn't stay away very long.

All summer we anticipated coming once again to school, only now as "Green Freshmen". We had completed eight full years and had only four to go. Mrs. Michael was chosen to be our sponsor and we gained seven pupils coming from Boone Twp. They were Joyce Bogue, John Hueston, Donald Pattison, Gladys Pettigrew, Glenda Pettigrew, Carolyn Reid, and John Thurston.

We went into our sophomore year with Mr. Jesse Pitts as our sponsor.

Our junior year things began to happen socially as well as scholastically. We gave our first stage production, "We Shook the Family Tree", knowing that we would never be a Gable or a Hepburn. All the same, we had fun. Selling magazines was our second big project. We did very well. A few of us won certificates and trophies. This year we gained Earl Newton.

Our senior year was even more exciting than we expected. We gave another play, "If Mother Only Knew", sold Christmas cards, and sold concessions at the ball games. We looked forward with eagerness to our Senior trip and our Prom, given to us by the Juniors.

We are proud of our boys who participated in sports. We are also proud of our teachers who have helped us through our twelve years of school. Our sponsor, Mr. Gossett, has made our last two years much easier with his excellent guidance.

We are at the climax of our senior year and feel proud getting ready to receive our diplomas and go out into the world as grown men and women.

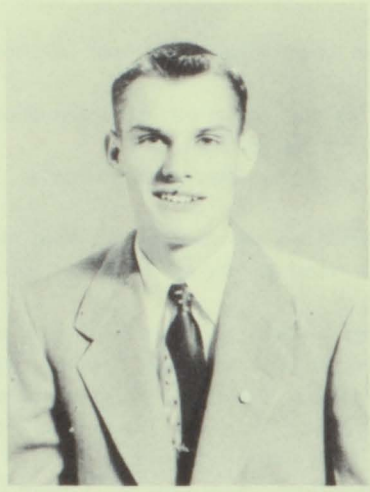

The Senior Class of 1954 wishes to express their greatest appreciation to the faculty members and the citizens of this community for helping and sacrificing some of their life so that we were able to achieve our education.

Last Will and Testament

We, the Senior Class of 1954, being of sound mind and memory, do hereby declare this our last will and testament.

- I, Arthur Roswell Gossett, will my weight to John W. Green, so he can throw it around next year.
- I, Radford Ray Garrett, leave my many so-called charms and physical appearance to Howard Corn.
- I, O. M. Goodman, will leave my square dance calls to Gilda Kilgore providing she will use them.
- I, Richard Owen Schuyler, will my many tall tales, that I have told to Dewey Schwinn.
- I, Mary Helen McCune, will my treasured nickname of Jane Russell to Rosalie Head.
- I, Gladys Ann Pettigrew, will my wedding cake knife to Barbara Warren.
- I, Garry Webster, will my broken razor to David Gates. Also my one and only blade I've used all year.
- I, Joyce Darlene Bright, will my Saturday night "wing dings" to anyone who can stand them.
- I, Joyce Ann Bogue, leave my singing ability to Joyce Gossett. In-so-much she does not use this bequeathment, within the first two weeks of school next fall, it will immediately fall into the hands of Phyllis Hannon.
- I, Patricia Sue Cunningham, will my aggressiveness to Bob Ryker, who could use it. If he does not accept he shall be cut entirely out of the will.
- I, Roy Marion Danforth, Jr., bequeath my job as president of the class to Bill Harvey. All accessories, such as gripes from teachers, trip plans, project worries, annual worries, and such small things, go with this bequeathment.
- I, Marilyn Jo Greenlee, will my loudness in classes and noise making in the halls to Harry McCord.
- I, Mary Eileen Hall, leave my giggles to Janice Tappan, and I do hope you don't get in trouble with them.
- I, Joyce Hollingsworth, will my shyness to Jack Sappenfield.
- I, Barbara Joann Leachman, will my Elwood boy friends and my red sweater boy friends to Patty Denny.
- I, Earl Newton, bequeath my boxing gloves to Sherman Baker and wish you success in having as many black eyes as I have had during this year.
- I, Donald Lee Pattison, will my "billy club" to someone who will watch Judy for the next two years for me. Any volunteers ????????????
- I, Glenda Joan Pettigrew, bequeath those long waits for my beau to Sandra Tucker. Tear buckets and all.
- I, Carolyn Sue Reid, leave my "one day a week off" to someone who can get by with it. Moving to Elwood might help! It takes awhile for the trip back.
- I, Don Vctor, leave my ability to recite in class to Barbara Durr.
- I, Joyce Ann Saubert, will my sassy remarks to the teacher to Dick Reily. And I do hope you can get away with it as I didn't.
- I, John Franklin Thurston, bequeath my talking in classes to Howard Corn.
- I, Janice Kay Treadway, will my job on the newspaper, on the annual, in the office, and in the assembly at noon with Leon to someone with a good knowledge of management.
- I, U. B. (Ewell) White, leave my morning classes and afternoons off to Bill Harvey. In-so-much as he does not accept this bequeathment it will fall into the hands of Bill Coty.
- I, Billy Jo Yeagy, leave my love troubles to Dewey Schwinn and JoAnn Thurston.
- I, James Lewis Merritt, will my concession job to an able-bodied man who can do the job as well as the class would like him to do.
- I, Wilma Lulabelle Briley, will my looks, personality and flirting to Jana Sue Pyle.
- I, John Carlton Hueston, leave my shyness to Jack Banther.
- I, Larry Lee Forrest, will my position as 17th president of International Harvester to Jana Sue Pyle.

The Prophecy of the Class of 1954

This is television station WLBC-TV, Muncie, Indiana. On this program we interview some of the outstanding personalities from this community. Today's outstanding feature is an interview with a former class of Summitville High School, who graduated in 1954.

First, we have Mrs. Murry Thurston, formerly Joyce Bogue of Summitville, who is now the hair stylist for M-G-M studios.

Mary Hall is the star of the Ice Capades of 1964 and Marilyn Greenlee is the Home Economics teacher at Summitville.

Joyce Hollingsworth and Lulabelle Briley have fulfilled their life ambitions--to make money; they are now the owners of several Texas oil wells.

O. M. Goodman is now Marilyn Monroe's fifth husband.

Larry Forrest was a teacher in Ogden, Utah, until he was jailed for bigamy.

Radford Garrett, whose ambition was to live and let live, has changed his mind, as he now owns the Garrett Funeral Home in Garrett, Indiana.

Joyce Bright is now head nurse at Billings Veterans Hospital and Mary Helen McCune, who always wanted to be a nurse, is now the "nursemaid" to her twelve children.

Roy Danforth is head basketball coach at Purdue University.

John Heston is the owner of the Heston Auto Agency in Kokomo.

Mrs. Jack Smedley, formerly Patty Cunningham, now teaches the fourth grade at Elwood, of which her triplets are members.

Janice Treadway is still working to keep Leon's arm strong.

Garry Webster, who won the Indianapolis "500" in 1963, is now going to make his second try at it.

Don Vctor is Glenda Pettigrew's private pilot and is kept very busy flying her between Summitville and Camp Lejeune, North Carolina.

Barbara Leachman is private secretary to Joyce Saubert, who married John D. Rockefeller IV.

Ewell B. White is married to Joyce Waymire and is now a very prominent farmer in Wisconsin.

Jim Merritt is a Certified Public Accountant in Washington, D.C., where he serves all of the congressmen.

Carolyn Reid, who is still looking for the man she loves, recently made another unsuccessful visit to the Lonely Hearts Club.

John Thurston is now head electrical engineer for Westinghouse.

Richard Schuyler is the owner of the Lazy S Dude Ranch near Cheyenne, Wyoming.

Billy Yeagy, who married Junevee Coleman, is owner of several well-known service stations throughout the country.

Don Pattison, who married Judy Cunningham, is now known as Sheriff Pattison, Sheriff of Madison County. One of his deputies is another well-known Summitville graduate, Earl Newton. He married Wanda Bennett and is also the father of four darling children.

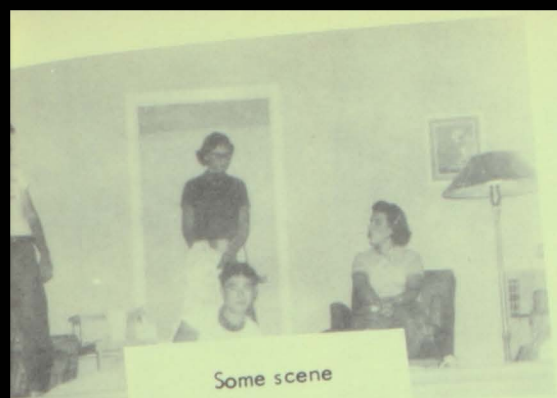

Last, but by no means least, is Gladys Pettigrew, now Mrs. Wayne Small, star of the Gladys and Buzzy Show, seen on this station every Sunday evening. This show also stars their seven boys.

The Chorus is composed of 51 members and is directed by Mrs. Sigworth. They sang at the County Choral Festival at Anderson, the District Music Contest, and at various school activities.

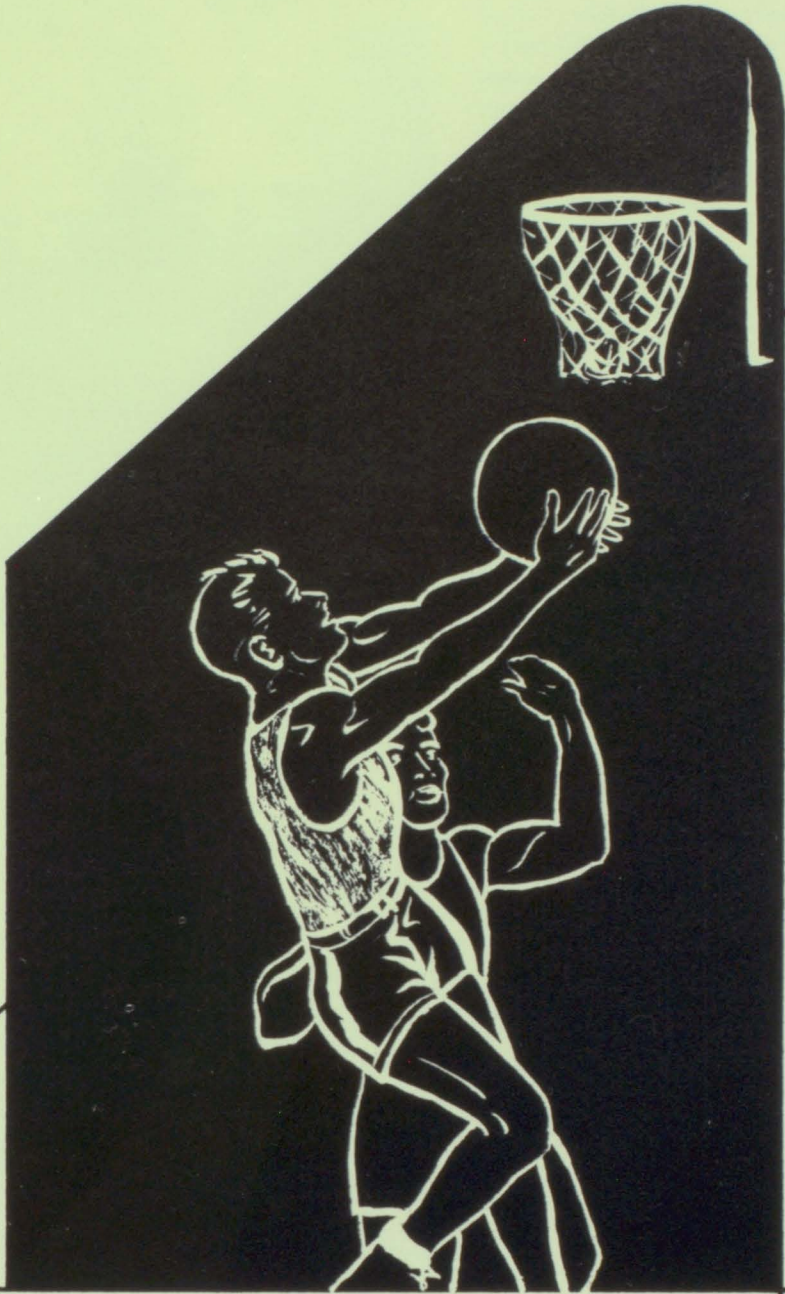

The food in the cafeteria this year has been wonderfully prepared. This credit goes to our three wonderful cooks. They are--standing, left to right--Mrs. Margaret Leachman, Mrs. Doris Frazier, and Mrs. Estella Clarke.

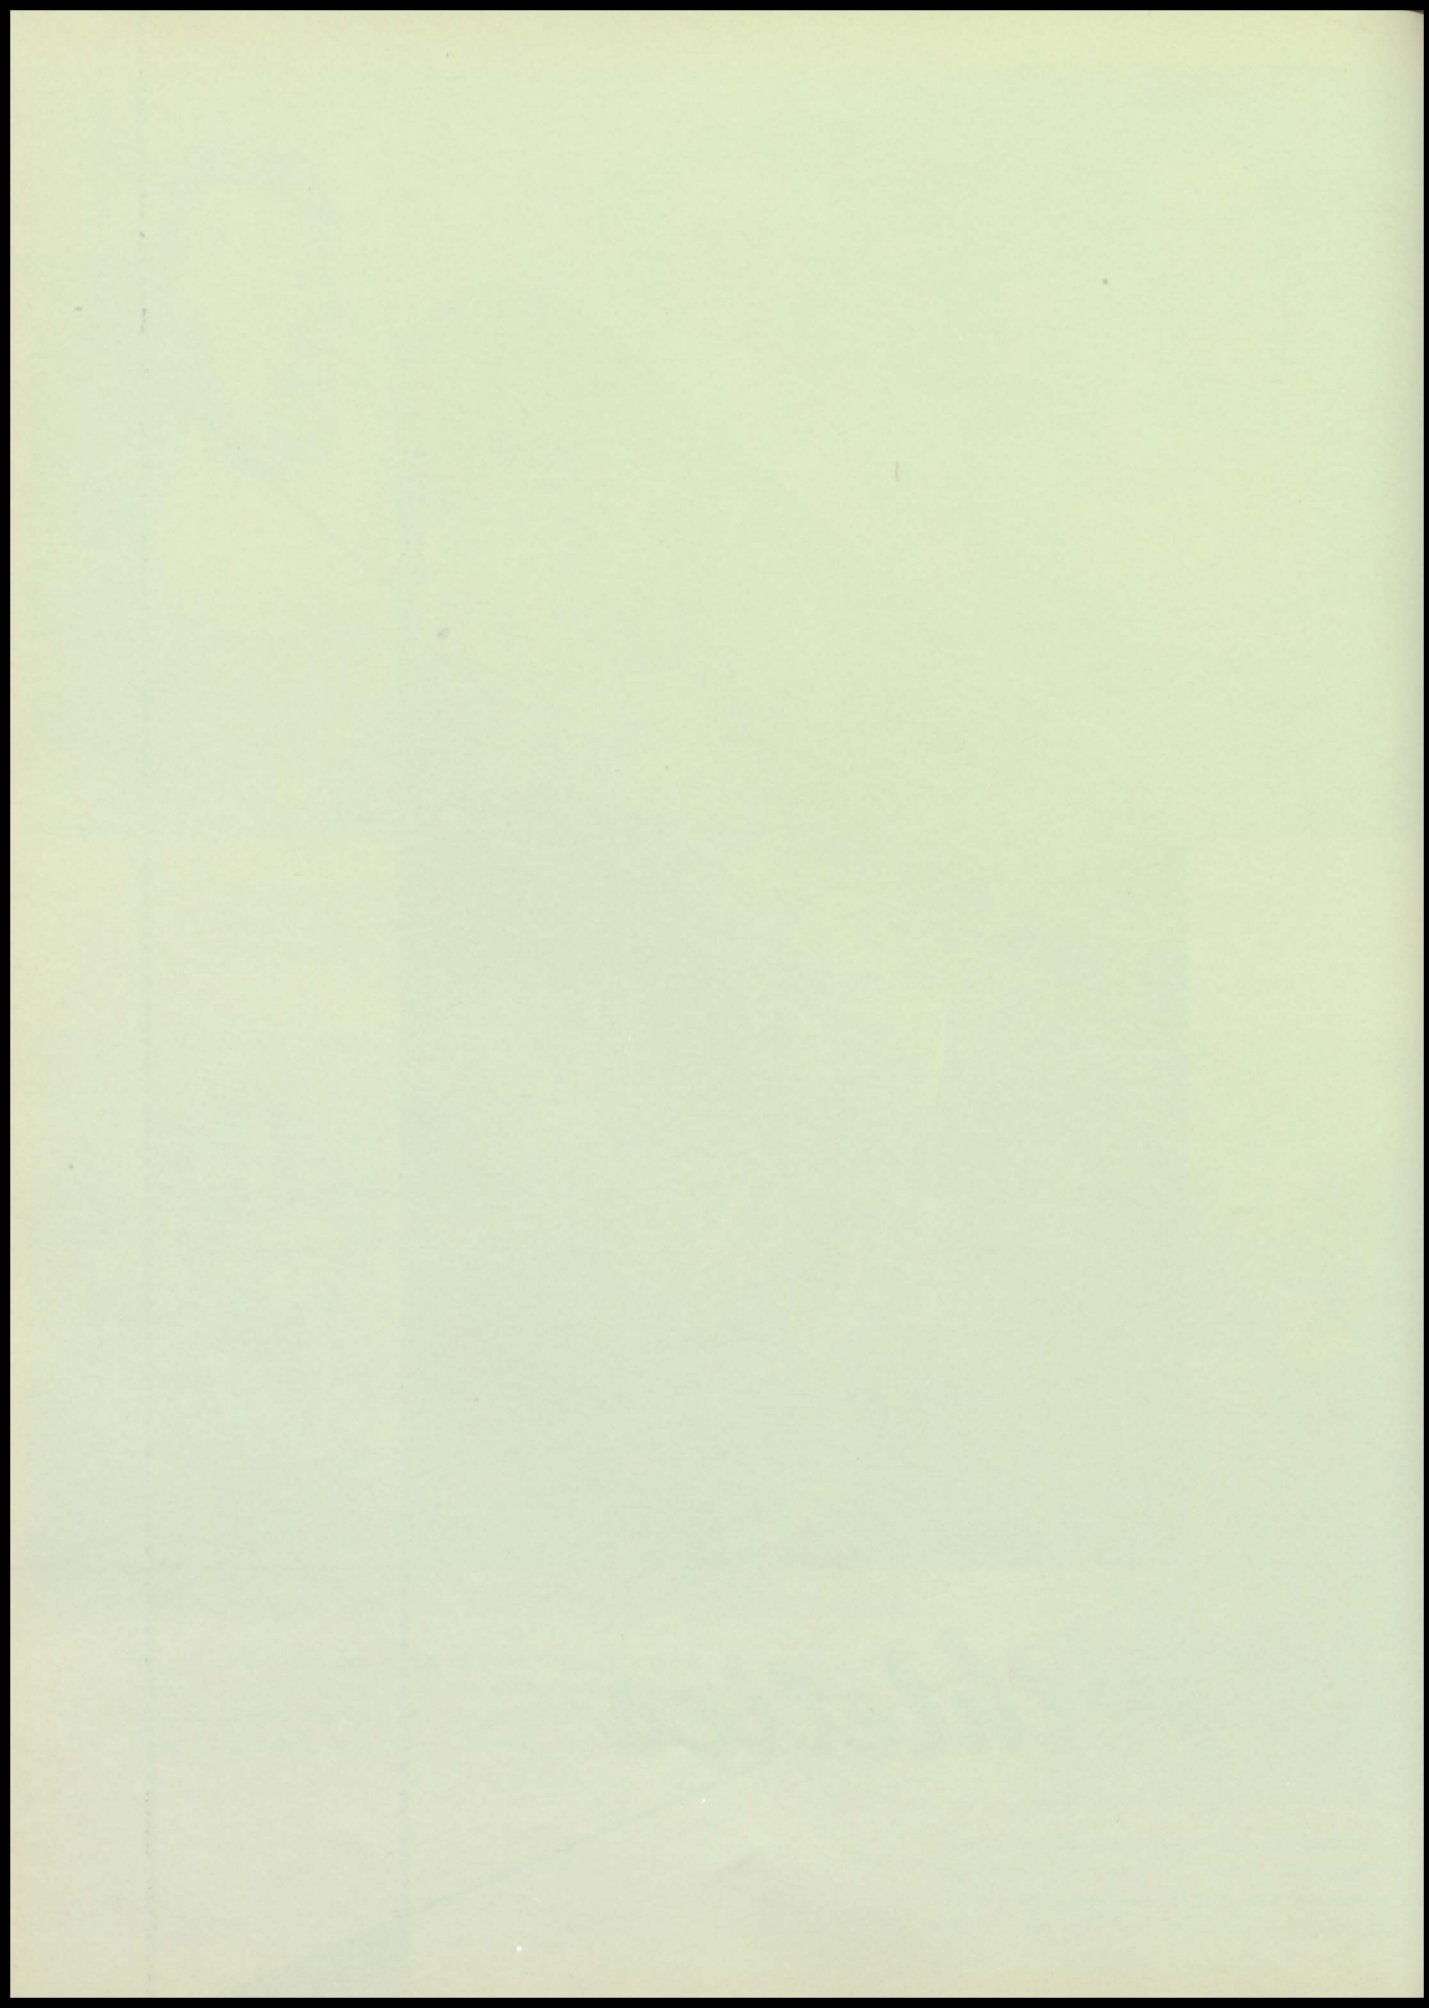

The responsibilities and duties of a bus driver are great. This year we have five busses that bring the students to school. Standing, left to right: Harvey Warner, Mrs. Louise Redding, Paul Joyner, Mrs. Daisy Kirkpatrick, and Francis Joyner.

The school has been kept in excellent condition by our faithful janitor, Mr. Ward. Although he was unable to be with us all this year because of his health, we still feel indebted to him for his work.

COACHES

Coach Joe Harvey, in his second year at S. H. S. and his first as head coach, has done a fine job in putting his charges through their paces. This has been a tough year for the coach, but Coach Harvey had made no excuses and continued his good work.

Before coming to Summitville, Coach Harvey coached at Bippus and Beaver Dam.

John Green has completed his first year at S. H. S. During that year he had guided the Junior High squad to a successful season.

Mr. Green was head of the athletic department at Wallace, Indiana, for 3 years before coming to S. H. S.

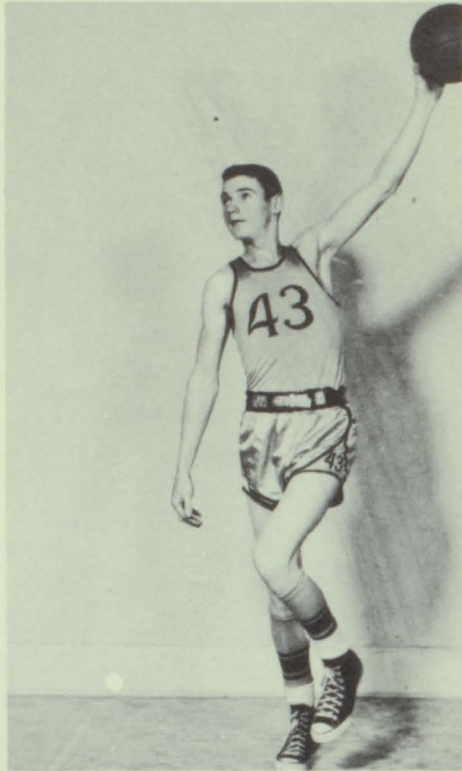

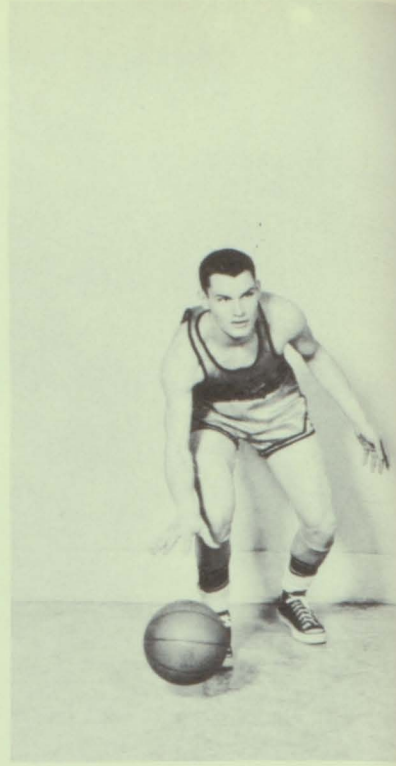

The Summitville "Goblin" baseball team won one game of their five game schedule. The baseball team was composed of 5 seniors, 1 junior, 8 sophomores, and 5 freshmen. Radford Garrett, Roy Danforth, Earl Newton, Don Pattison, and Jim Merritt will be absent from the 1954-55 squad when baseball practice starts.

Win or lose, it is important to have loyal cheerleaders to keep up the school spirit. This year's cheerleaders were Judie Mason, Judy Cunningham, and Linda Abernathy. These girls have done a fine job of keeping up the school spirit and leading the yells.

YELL LEADERS

We are very proud of the Junior High cheerleaders who are Grace Roberson, Brenda Johnson, Judie Silvey, Betty Treadway, and Jon Goodman. They have attended the games and really willingly backed their team. Although this was their first year of cheer-leading, they did a splendid job.

MANAGERS

The duties of Jimmy Merritt, Ronny DeLong, and Bill Leachman, our student managers, are very unlimited. The care of the uniforms and equipment are only a minor part of their job. The comfort of the players depends largely on them. They have done an excellent job this year and deserve a lot of credit.
