Facing Our Futures While Keeping Tradition

Here at Madison-Grant, changes occur all around us. We must get used to new teachers replacing the educators who have served as the cornerstone of our building for decades. We must make technological advancements, such as the transition to online textbooks, the submission of electronic essays, and even the change from chalkboards to Smartboards! All of these transitions are reminders of our purpose here at Madison-Grant High School: to become prepared to face our futures.

However, we always remember to keep tradition close. Friday night football games remain spirited with the encouraging band, enthusiastic fans, and, of course, the wild student section. Traditions such as Homecoming and Prom remain just as memorable as they have been for years. While never missing out on the opportunity to have a little fun, we students fully understand the importance of our studies. As seniors, we prepare ourselves for one of the most memorable and classic traditions of high school: graduation. The ceremony, full of heartwarming speeches, pleasant handshakes, and proud parents, is not complete until the Silly String has been sprayed! Despite the changes surrounding us and reminding us of how we are all facing our futures, we keep the Argyll traditions alive!

Spotlight

Bethani Herniak

Although the season did not go as well as many had planned, She enjoyed working hard every day and watching her teammates and herself improve daily. Her most memorable moment of this season was the team holding D1 recruit Kelsey Key from Frankton to only 4 points. In addition to this defensive feat, Her next favorite part of the season was all the pre-game dancing that took place in the locker room. She is going to greatly miss seniors Shannon Wallace, Kaycie Pyle, and Rose Perry.

A TWEET 35,000 LEAGUES UNDER THE SEA Blockbuster movie director James Cameron took the second-ever dive to the bottom of the Mariana Trench in the Pacific Ocean, and became the first person to send a Tweet from 35,755 feet beneath the sea.

"Just arrived at the ocean's deepest pt. Hitting bottom never felt so good. Can't wait to share what I'm seeing w/ you @DeepChallenge" — @JimCameron

100TH ANNIVERSARY OF TITANIC From cruises that retraced the Titanic's route to museum openings and special musical/theatrical performances to recreated meals and graveyard tours, the world remembered the most famous maritime disaster in history. On April 15, a century after the great ship went down causing the loss of 1,500 lives, the voyage remained an icon of luxury that became an emblem of tragedy. Director James Cameron's 1997 award-winning blockbuster set new box office records as the second film ever to top $2 billion in ticket sales, thanks to a 3-D re-release timed to the centennial of the ship's sinking.

RECOGNITION GALORE Fan favorite Taylor Swift repeated as Entertainer of the Year at the Academy of Country Music Awards. Swift became the second woman to win the title more than once, extending the streak of female victories to four.

FACEBOOK POWER PLAYS While Facebook's initial public offering (IPO) on May 18 was the largest to date in Internet history, the stock — which originally sold for $38 a share — lost as much as 47 percent of its value in ensuing months. April's pre-IPO announcement of a $1 billion acquisition of photo-sharing service Instagram ended up costing less because the deal included millions of shares of stock.

FINALLY! After a loss to Dallas in the 2011 finals, the Miami Heat bested the Oklahoma City Thunder in just five games to clinch the 2012 NBA crown, and LeBron James was named finals MVP. FIRST-EVER STANLEY CUP FOR L.A. Nearly 20 years after their last appearance in the NHL finals, the Los Angeles Kings topped the New Jersey Devils in six games. TWITTER MADE THE SCOPE OF THE WORLD'S OBSESSION WITH THE 16-DAY SPORTING EVENT OBVIOUS.

THE 2012 GAMES SAW 66 OLYMPIC RECORDS AND 30 WORLD RECORDS BROKEN.

MOST DECORATED OLYMPIAN EVER The medal count as Michael Phelps ended his swimming career in London was staggering: 22 in all, including 18 Golds. From London alone, Phelps earned four Golds and a pair of Silvers. The 27-year-old champion officially retired from competitive swimming after the Olympic Games and was vague about his plans for the future. Also in the pool, Colorado's 17-year-old Missy Franklin captivated fans, winning four Golds and a Bronze while setting two new world records. And Ryan Lochte's five new Olympic medals, including two Golds, along with his big personality and good looks, set off a new career on screen — though he already committed to competing in Rio. Ongoing controversy surrounded record-breaking performances by Chinese swimmer Ye Shiwen, 16, who won a pair of IM Golds and smashed world records by delivering times better than either Phelps or Lochte. Proving doubters wrong, Shiwen tested clean for doping.

GOLD THRICE Called "the greatest beach volleyball team of all time," Misty May-Treanor and Kerri Walsh Jennings repeated as women's beach volleyball champions in London. In addition to their three Olympic Golds, the duo won three World Championships before May-Treanor retired. RECORD-BREAKING When Carmelita Jeter anchored a world-record effort in the 4x100-meter relay, Team USA won the Gold medal with a scorching time of 40.82 seconds. That mark, the first in history under 41 seconds, broke a record set in 1985.

USA	GOLD 46		SILVER 29		BRONZE 29		TOTAL 104
CHINA	GOLD 38		SILVER 27		BRONZE 23		TOTAL 88
GREAT BRITAIN	GOLD 29		SILVER 17		BRONZE 19		TOTAL 65

"FIERCE 5" The U.S. women won the team gymnastics competition, their first team Gold since 1996, by a whopping five points over second place Russia. Because only two from each team can compete, Jordan Wieber was edged out of the individual all-around finals. There, Gabby Douglas earned the individual all-around Gold, Aly Raisman medalled twice and McKayla Maroney's "not impressed" look after winning the Silver medal in the vault finals became an Internet sensation.

BLADE RUNNER While South African double amputee Oscar Pistorius left London an inspiration to many, his reputation lost its shine (and sponsors pulled their endorsements) just months later when he was charged with the murder of his girlfriend, Reeva Steinkamp.

VICTORY Winning the first U.S. women's Gold in judo was just part of Kayla Harrison's story. Molested by her childhood coach, she returned to the mat after opening up to her mother. Kayla committed herself to training harder than ever while her coach sat in prison.

BADMINTON EXPULSION Eight players from three different Asian teams were controversially excluded from the Games for not trying hard enough to win matches. Officials said their attempts to throw early matches violated the Olympic spirit.

DENIED South Korea's Shin A-lam waited more than an hour for her appeal to be heard before leaving the fencing strip. Britta Heidemann of Germany, who advanced to the Gold medal match but lost, was awarded the winning touch.

MORE GOLD Without dropping a set during the Games, sisters Venus and Serena Williams earned Gold in doubles with victories over the Czech Republic and Russia. In addition, Serena took top singles honors, so she — like her sister — owned five Olympic Gold medals.

VOLCAN DE FUEGO A long-simmering volcano in Guatemala produced its most powerful eruption in nearly 40 years in September, hurling thick clouds of ash miles high, spewing glowing rivers of lava and prompting massive evacuation orders. POWERFUL TEMBLOR Costa Rica's worst quake in over two decades — a tremor measuring 7.6 that was felt as far away as Nicaragua and Panama — sparked landslides, knocked down buildings, disrupted power and briefly triggered a tsunami warning, but caused just two deaths and relatively few injuries.
