FRANKTON, INDIANA

'76 Means Changes, History for WCSC

Dale Prough, Superintendent of the West Central Community School Corporation, retired Sept. 30, 1975 after 46 years in education. He spent 11 years serving the Metropolitan and West Central Community School Corporation, after 26 years with the total county system.

During Prough's term in education in the Madison County School System, progress came rapidly. There were 13 one room schools in the county in 1949 when he began his first superintendent's position in the Middletown School District. These schools were quickly abolished through a well planned building program for the various attendance areas within the county. Eleven new building programs were to become realities. Some of these schools were Frankton High School, Lapel Grade and High School, Highland Jr. and Sr. High School, Madison Heights High School, and Jackson Elementary School.

While all these changes were taking place, Gene Heniser, past principal of FHS, began his educational career. Heniser is a graduate of Eaton High School in 1937; University of Kentucky in 1948; and Butler University with a Masters degree in 1952.

During his 16 years at FHS, Heniser was honored by the acceptance in 1961 of FHS into the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. He also remembers the commencement address by Birch Bayh, who is now a candidate in the 1976 Presidential election. As of Oct. 1, 1975, Heniser is now the assistant superintendent of W.C.S.C. and is no longer a part of FHS, exclusively.

Prough's successor is Gerald Roudebush, past principal at Lapel High School. Roudebush has been in education for 38 years. Twenty-eight of these years have been in service to the Madison County School System. While at Lapel, he witnessed the incorporation of West Central School System. For the future, Roudebush hopes to see the corporation "grow and improve academically and physically."

Playback

Colonization of the United States began in the 1600's.

Times were hard for the new Americans and they wanted more freedom from Britain, which had colonized the "new land". In 1775 the American "minutemen" fired the first shot of the Revolutionary War.

This began the Early National Period which stressed the freedom of the country. Following Lincoln's election in 1860, southern states seceded from the Union to form the Confederate States of America. The Civil War began.

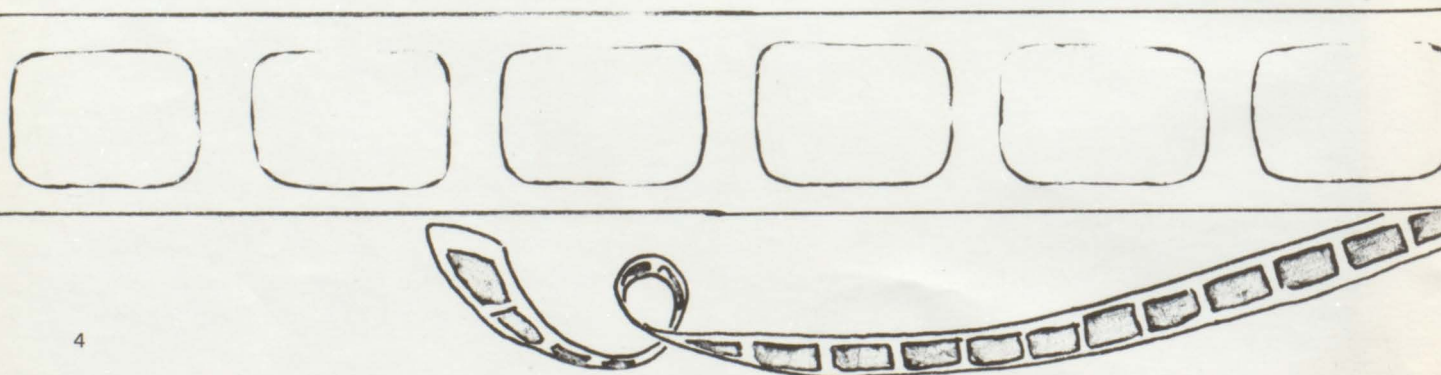

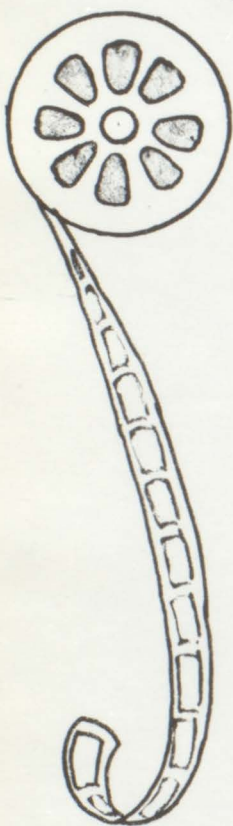

In 1917, America entered WWI on the Allied side. This was the U.S.' first large-scale use of military planes.

In 1927, Charles A. Linbergh achieved the first non-stop trans-Atlantic flight. The next year, Amelia Earhart became the first woman to fly solo across the Atlantic.

Later in our aviation history, in 1961, John Glenn became the first American to orbit the earth. On July 20, 1969, Neil Armstrong became the first American to walk on the moon.

Conflict, as always, played a continuous part in the nation's history. A sneak attack on Pearl Harbor, 1941, brought the U.S. into WWII.

Yet another war—in 1965 the U.S. involvement in Vietnam began. It was one of the most controversial issues in U.S. history.

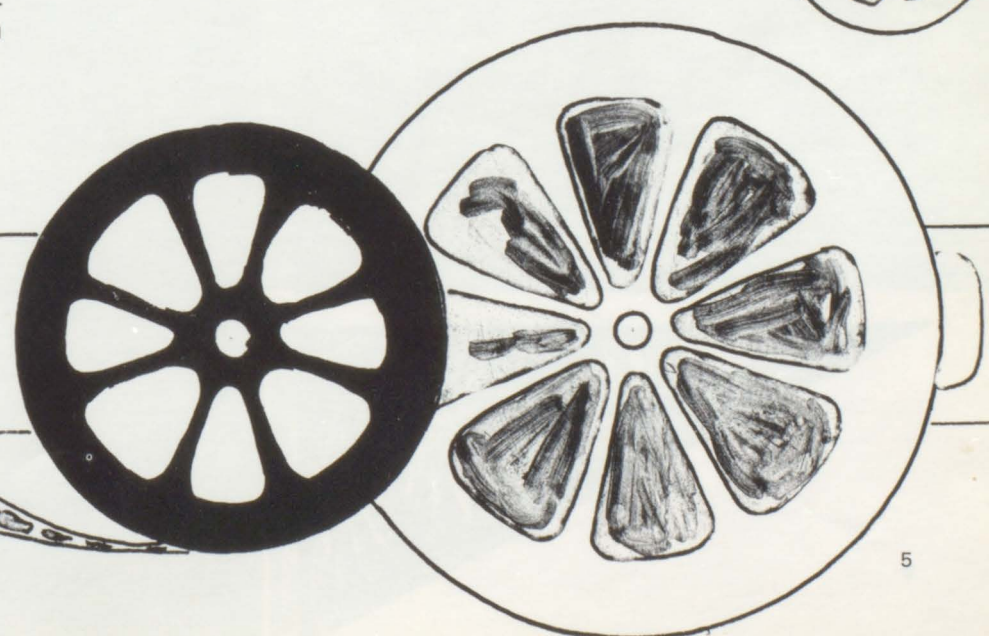

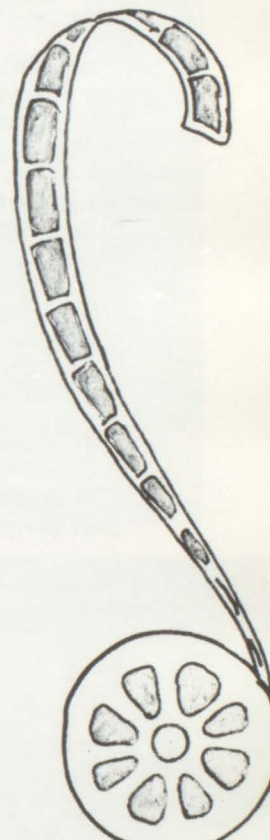

Recently, in 1972, Richard M. Nixon was re-elected by a landslide over George McGovern, only to resign two years later in the face of political scandal and extreme unpopularity.

For the first time the American people were led by two men not of their choosing Gerald Ford and Nelson Rockefeller.

And that's the way it was . . .

Frankton Then: As it used to be

At its 100th birthday in 1953, the Frankton Centennial Committee described a brief history of the small town "nestled in a fertile green valley on the banks of Pipe Creek . . ."

According to legend, Jacob Sigler founded Frankton, or at least the site, in 1820 when he "made his residence in a large hollow sycamore tree on the banks of Pipe Creek, named for Chief Pipe, an Indian of the era."

The "village" dates from March 3, 1853 and was named in honor of Jacob Sigler's eldest son, Francis. In 1871, the village was recognized through official articles of incorporation.

Frankton grew quickly. The first store was established in 1833; the post office in 1837; a mill in 1839 or 1840; the first railroad in Madison County in 1851; the Methodist Congregation in 1836.

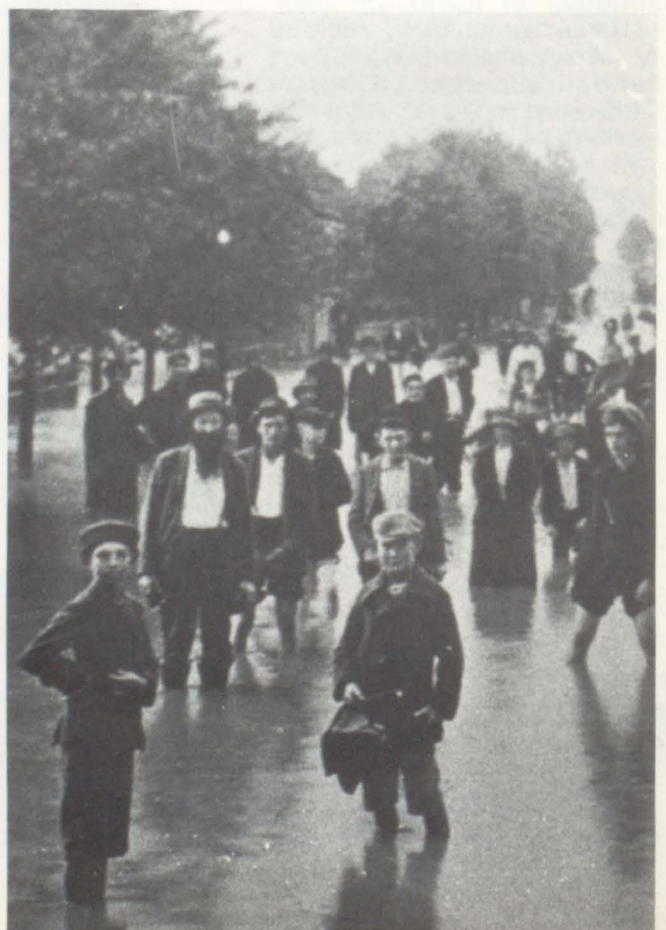

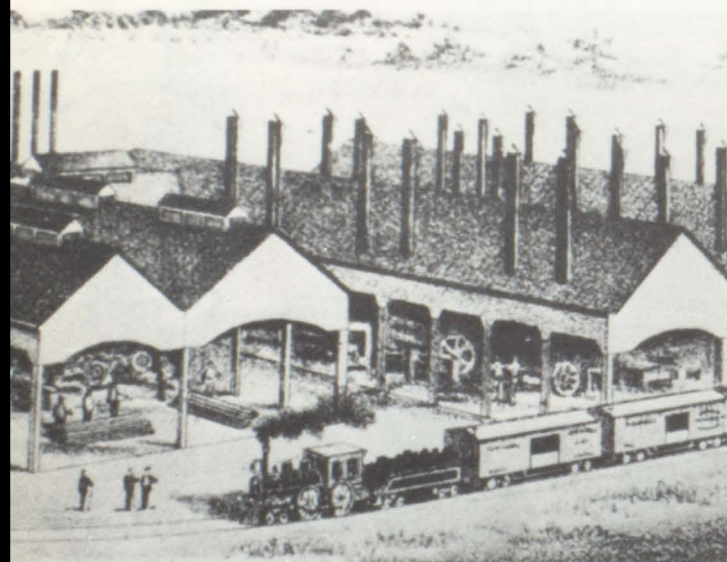

In the midst of this growth Frankton developed in a typical small town style as fate intervened to bring prosperity. In 1887 natural gas drew many new businesses to the town. The population blasted from a peaceful 600 to a bustling 2,500.

Almost as suddenly as prosperity appeared, it vanished in 1905. More than 100 homes moved from Frankton within a few years.

Frankton is still a small town—or at least has the reputation of being so. But, it plays its part in bustling Madison County and the large city of Anderson nearby.

In more recent history, Robert Ludlow retired after 36 years as Frankton Clerk-Treasurer and was honored on Dec. 27, 1975 as he left his familiar position.

This year—1976—has been truly revolutionary for the West Central School Corporation. The changes have been many, some sad, many rewarding. After 37 years, Dale Prough stepped down from the superintendent's position to be replaced by Gerald Roubush, former Lapel principal. Frankton High School's former principal,

Gene Heniser, filled the newly created assistant superintendent's position. FHS was left in the capable hands of Gordon Kerkhoff, principal, Larry Hannah, newly appointed assistant principal, and Marjorie Andrew, counselor. LINDA AYNES

We the class of '76, were the largest graduating class in the history of Frankton High School. We had 168 graduating members compared to 74 in the first graduating class in 1960.

Our class had the best attendance percentage all year with 95.3% present each day. Upon graduation, over 30% of our class already had definite plans for furthering their education.

Many of us enjoyed coming to school for only three or four periods a day, and although we looked forward to graduating, we miss the happy times we had at Frankton. These memories will not soon be forgotten, nor will be the fact that we were the historical class of '76.

Theresa Weaver Named 1976 FHS Prom Queen

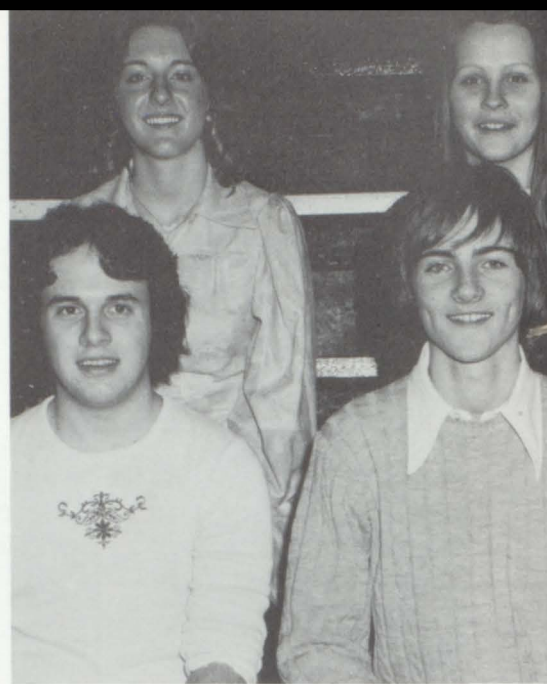

We, the class of '77, started the year out with the good 'ole magazine sales to raise money for the prom. Top salesmen were Lana Canfield, Diana Braddick, and Tammy Bailey.

At Homecoming we won the float contest with our "Land on the Huskies!". Our class was the only one that saved gas by pulling the float with manpower.

In January, we started planning for the prom. We chose

"Remember the Times of Your Life" as the theme.

Theresa Weaver, escorted by Mark Benefiel, was crowned 1976 Prom Queen by last year's queen, Sharon Lamb. Sophomores Struggle Through Required Classes

We, the class of '78, were the largest class at Frankton this year. We took an Armed Services Vocational Aptitude Battery Test, administered by the Department of Defense as a management aid to us for when we are looking for jobs that we will be most happy with. We elected class officers in September: Pres. Dennis Wellman, V.-Pres. Rhonda Morin, Sec. Becky Under-rinner, and Treas. Betsy Brown.

Although this year we struggled through many of the same required classes, like P.E., science, and math, next year we are looking forward to being able to choose the classes we want. We will choose college courses that will prepare us for college and future careers.

Class of 1979 Becomes Active in First Year

We, the class of '79, really enjoyed the step up from junior high to high school. There are so many more things to get involved in at the high school and our class took advantage of them too. We joined the band, in which our class had the largest representation, the choirs, and all the different clubs.

Our officers this year were: Pres. Tony Hughes, V. Pres. Michele Maymire, Sec. Roxanna Hart, and Treas. Jennifer Brashear (opposite page).

On September 12th we elected freshman cheerleaders. They were Jennifer Brashear, Michelle Waymire, and Terri Ester.

Gridironers Still Seek Winning Season

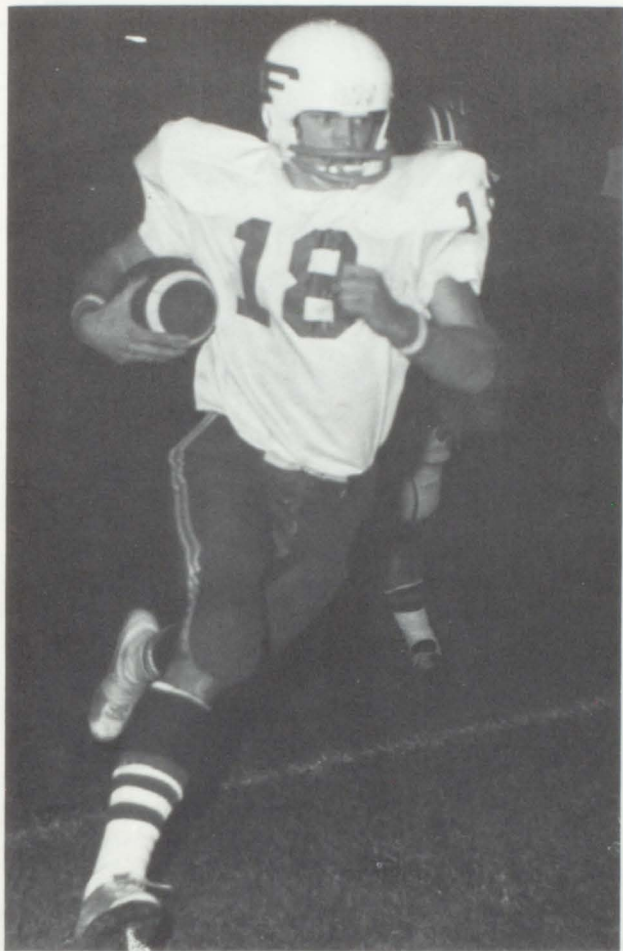

The 1975 edition of the Frankton football Eagles once again fell short of the coveted "winning season." However, along the way the Eagles provided many thrills and much excitement.

After dropping the opener to Elwood, 28-7, the Eagles won and lost against Shenandoah and Mt. Vernon. The next two games the Eagles downed rivals Lapel and Highland. Injuries began to take their toll as the Eagles dropped two straight. Later the Eagles beat the Tigers of Yorktown for the first time in the school's history. FHS finished the season on a bad note—two losses.

Harriers Improve, Look to Next Year

The cross country team finished the season with a record of 5-6, the best record since '72. Kevin Hudson set a new school and junior class record of 12:56 for the 2½-mile run. Senior Emery Murray set a class record of 13:34, while Mike Sheward was elected Captain and Most Valuable Runner. Mike was the leader throughout the year, evidenced by the fact that he ran 700 miles during the summer. Out of a "re-building year," seven of nine top runners will return next season.

Varsity Matmen Muster 4-6 Season

The wrestling team is on its way up. The squad bettered last year's record by ending with a 4-6 dual meet record. Victories came over Mt. Vernon, Lapel, Hamilton Heights, and Madison Grant. Upperclassmen led the way for a young team that has all but three returning to next year's squad. Tim Roberts (9-8), captain, placed 4th in the county, 4th in the Wes Del Invitational, 4th in the conference, and 3rd in the sectional. Scott Haney (12-6), Most Valuable Wrestler, placed 4th in the county, 3rd at Wes Del, and 3rd in the sectional. Jay Couch placed 3rd in the sectional, with Steve Marsh capturing 4th place at Wes Del. The team finished 4th at the sectional. Take down plaques were awarded to Jay Couch and Scott Haney, who led the squad in take downs. The Pin award was awarded to Scott Haney and Tim Roberts for having the most pins.

Frankton's volleyball team improved vastly this past year. The varsity squad came up with a 6-8 record while the reserves won seven and lost six. Most Valuable Player Terrie Couch and Kathy Wade accounted for one-half of the team's points this season. Both were named WRC Honorable Mentions.

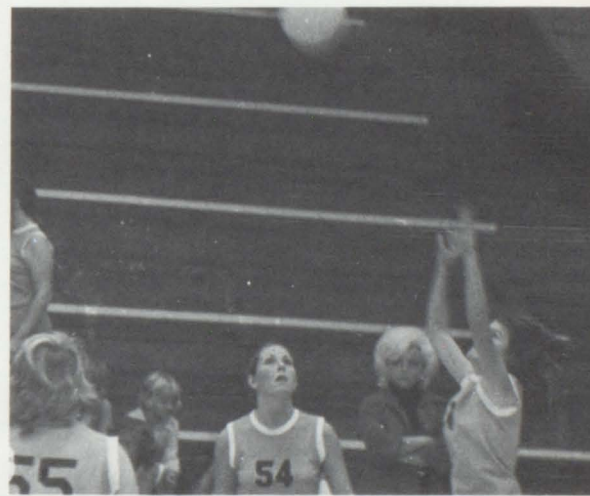

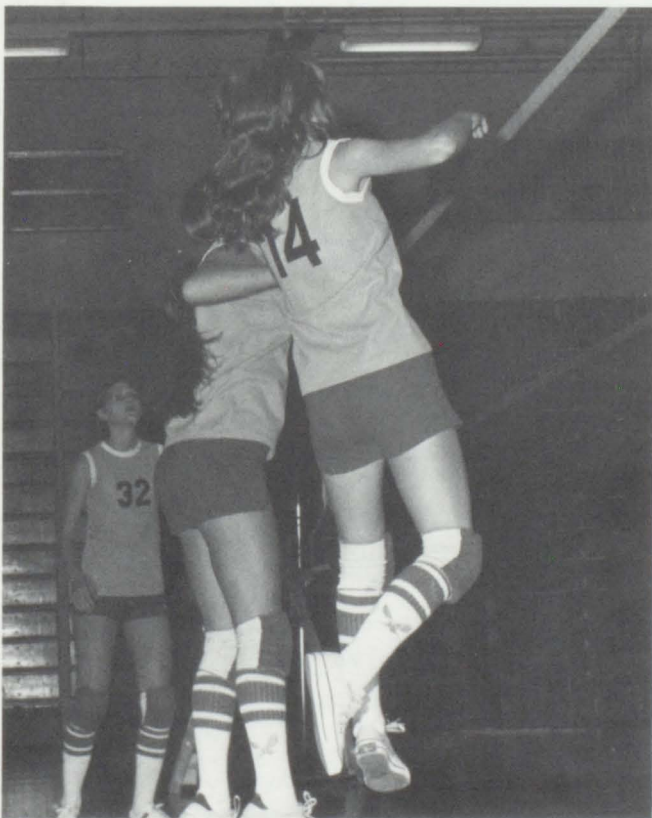

In '76, this year's reserves will fill the holes left by the seven graduating seniors. Letter winners this year were: Marsha Busby, Terrie Couch, Dot Hall, Lou Ann Hall, Ruth Hendricks, Debbie Hughes, Carol Marsh, Amy Pritchett, Le Ann Schmidt, Kathy Valentine, and Kathy Wade.

B-ballers End 35-Game Losing Streak

Frankton's basketball team ended its 35 game losing streak early this year. By the time 32 minutes of varsity basketball had been played in the first game at Mt. Vernon, Frankton had become victorious. Frankton drew Lapel in the sectional. After a tremendous second-half effort, the Eagles fell short by just three points.

Eugene Boswell became the second highest Frankton career rebounder, as well as being named to three honorable mention teams. Bret Overdorf was named 'Most Valuable', while Jim Fetterman and Bret Overdorf were named 'Honorary Captains.'

Tom Marshall was the number one golfer this year, leading the way with such scores as 48, 46, 43, 44, and 30. Marshall, Bruce Hughes, Mark Cox, Eric Hudson, and Larry Shively played major roles on the varsity squad, although FHS compiled only a 2-9 season record.

The reserve squad was made up of Bob Stanley, who moved to varsity, Steve Parker, and David Heath.

Experience, Strong Hitting Aid Eagle Attack

While compiling a 7-9 record, the Summer '75 baseball team was led by seniors Mike Cooper, Ron Qualls and Tim Hendricks. Juniors Mark Cox and Harry Schmink added punch to the attack. Cooper and Qualls were named to the All-WRC team, while Cox and Schmink were honorable mentions.

The Spring of '76 saw upperclassmen Schmink, Cox, Brian Borum and Ned Hart, plus juniors Jerry Emmons, Steve Fuller, and Randy Parker, provide the experience, while newcomers Tom Beeman, Dane Whetsel, Greg Karr, and others, provided youth to the team.

Schmink, Emmons and Borum provided the pitching, and Cox, Fuller, Parker, Emmons, Schmink and Beeman provided the bulk of the hitting. Junior Steve Mundell added good solid defense by not committing a single error through the May schedule.

Cheerleaders Tops in Spirit, Performance

A new sponsor, new uniforms, new routines—all added up to an exciting year for the Frankton cheerleaders. After May elections, practice began early in the summer in preparation for State Fair competition, where the reserve squad placed 13 out of 80 and the varsity, 35 out of 90. June was spent in raising money for NWCA camp in Kalamazoo, Mich. In final competition, the varsity squad won the 1st place trophy. Also, with the help of sponsor Jan McClain, the expanded varsity squad made all new outfits for basketball season.

Mexico Fling Fills Spanish Club Calendar

Undoubtedly the highlight of the school year for Spanish Club members was a week-long trip to Mexico over spring break. Although only 18 members, accompanied by Mrs. Culp, Miss Lake, and Mrs. JoAnne Miller, were able to go, the whole club threw itself into fund-raising activities, such as bake sales, car washes, and chili suppers. It all paid off as those making the trip were able to enjoy a fun and educational seven days in Acapulco, Taxco, and Mexico City.

Dances, Food, Quebec Trip Highlight French Club Firsts

French Club had many "firsts" this year. The first annual Sadie Hawkins dance, held March 20, helped to raise money for a trip to Quebec at the end of the school year and a trip to Chez Jean in Indianapolis in the spring. French Club also sponsored an earlier dance, a bake sale and concession stands at home basketball games to raise money. Fifteen persons left Frankton early May 27 for five days in Canada.

This was also the first year for a French Honor Society. The 10 students, who had to have an 'A' grade average, were inducted at a ceremony at Chez Jean.

Swing Choir On Tour

After a lot of hard work "United" again hit the road with their medley of old-time, modern-time and fun-time songs. Earlier in the school year, they performed for a few local organizations, such as the Lions' Club and the Frankton Christian Church. On March 10, "United" began their tour of northern Indiana, including Triton High School, Rochester High School, New Carlisle High School and New Prairie School. Climaxing the tour was a visit to the snow-covered Notre Dame campus.

The one hundred and thirty-five choir members were involved in many projects this year. Calendars and popcorn were sold to increase the Music Dept's fund in order, hopefully, to sponsor a musical next year. In the fall, Mark Austin and Terri Freeman represented FHS as members of the All-State Choir. A December Christmas program involved a lot of time, and memorizing. March was the month for the Madison County Choral Festival, held this year at Pendleton

Heights H.S.

May brings graduation, a time of ecstasy and sorrow, at which concert choir assembled to sing congratulations and farewell to departing seniors. For graduating choir members, it was time for the annual "Hammy" awards, presented for the most outstanding and "unique" performances in class. Among the winners were: Linda Cox, the Clairol award; Kim Shell, the Sleeper award; and, Julie Alexander, the Break-a-Nail award.

FCA Sponsors Games, Talks

FCA Club, with Coach Jim Fletcher as sponsor, was responsible for a few of this year's activities. The Varsity vs. B-team and the Seniors vs. Teachers basketball games were FCA fund raising projects.

FCA invited Sheriff John Gunter, Jon and Don McGlocklin and others to speak at their meetings earlier in the year. Recent activities include sending Alicia McPhearson to the girls' national conference of FCA and Bruce Pritchett, Larry Shively, Levi Cox, Jimmy Wright and Bob Pardue to the Indiana-Ohio Weekend Conference of FCA.

Pep Clubbers Show Spirit

The first order of business for Pep Club was to decide on new outfits. They chose navy pants and white muslin shirts, set off by a red bandanna for the underclassmen and a revival of senior chords for the upper classmen. Attendance at all home games and many WRC away games was required for club members. Mrs. Carol Gailbraith took over as the club advisor and was aided by officers: Amy Pratchett, Lana Canfield, Lori Strange-way, and Betsy Brown.

Student Council Urges Student Action, Concern

In 1975-76 the Student Council sponsored a few dances and had a suggestion box placed in the library for students who had new and better ideas of running school activities. Answers to students' comments were typed up and placed on the front hall bulletin board.

Aided by sponsor Ord LeMaster, they selected next year's convocations from the choices available at the time. This year's convos included everything from music to

The student council also selected a "Teenager of the Month," sponsored by the Elwood Elks Club here at Frankton and at Elwood High School. To be eligible for this title a student need be a junior or senior and be active in school and extracurricular activities. The 1975-76 Frankton Teenagers of the Month were Bret Overdorf, Mike Sheward, Amy Pritchett, Theresa Weaver, Dawn Pike, Ned Hart and Lisa Wittkamper.

The juniors and seniors of the National Honor Society were led in 1975-76 by Don Beeler, pres.; Amy Pritchett, v-pres.; and Vera Dupree, sec-treas. A coat check at all home basketball games helped raise money for the honor society's own bicentennial celebration—a trip to Washington D.C. and New York. Approximately 40 people, including sponsor Sterrett Nash and his wife, enjoyed the week-long trip during spring vacation.

Other activities included a volleyball game with Alexandria High School which invited Frankton NHS members to a pizza party; and, an awards banquet in May, sponsored by the Frankton Lions Club.

FFA Members Compete, Win In Four Judging Contests

Last summer FFA attended the State FFA Convention at Purdue. During the school year they competed in four judging contests. FHS winners were Rick Idlewine, Jeff Horn, Tony Bailey and Myron Wittkamper, soil judging; Rick Idlewine, Tony Bailey, Scott Heaton and Darrel Bodkin, livestock judging; Jeff Horn, Myron Wittkamper, Arthur King and Scott Heaton, poultry judging; and in dairy judging, Mide Bott, Rick Idlewine, Pat Moreland, and Pat Connelly. To end the school year, fifteen "canoe loads" made an all-day outing to Turkey Run State Park.

Thirteen Assistants Aid With Library Duties

There were a total of thirteen students working in the library last year as library assistants. Their major duty was to take care of circulation. This included shelving and carding of books, and delivering overdue notices. They also kept busy answering reference questions and helping other students find materials. Special projects included putting up bulletin boards and developing special collections on topics of student interest.

ART

Art Club elected Mark Austin as its president, Mel White as secretary and Vickie Appleby as vice president. Mrs. C. Lucas is the club's sponsor. Art Club was involved in intensive fund raising projects to raise funds to send one or two talented students to a one-week Ball State University art workshop. Mark Austin attended the BSU workshop last summer.

The year began with Art Club creating ceramic bells to sell, then a raffle was held. The prize was an original Mark Austin painting won by Lou Ann Hall. Candles were also sold.

DRAMA

After a year's lapse, the FHS Drama Club became active again. Added to the five veteran members, remaining from 1974, were 26 new members and one new sponsor, Mrs. Gailbraith. In the fall, a three-act farce, "Get Witch Quick," was presented. Some of us hated the play, ourselves, and others before it was over; but in the spring, we were ready to do it again. In March we presented three one-act plays: "The Lottery," (a drama); "The Diary of Adam and Eve," (a satire); and, "The Widow's Plight," (a melodrama).

BAND

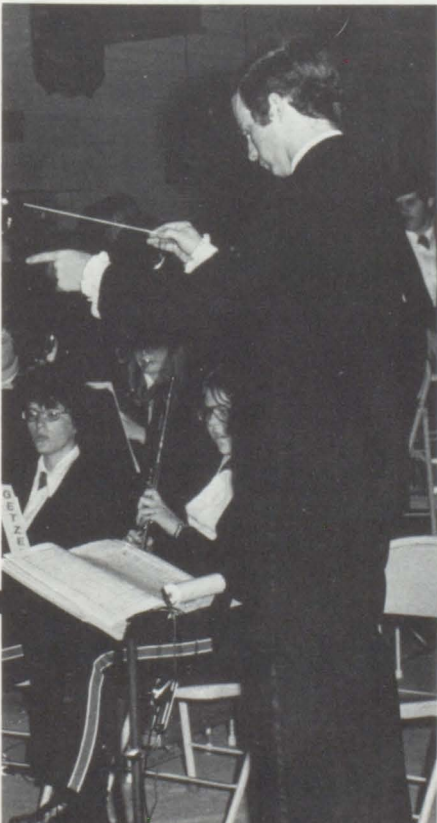

The Band department, and majorettes, completed a good year, climaxing with a very successful Variety Show. The year began with preparations for football season, and especially the '76 Homecoming, "America's Bicentennial." During the basketball season the band played at every home game. Shows included new majorette routines taught by choreographer Janet Post.

The highlight of the year was the April 23 & 24 Variety Show, to the theme of "Happy Birthday America." Both band and majorettes will be busy this summer with five scheduled parades and a booth at the Frankton Bicentennial celebration.

Skills, Drills Sharpened by FBLA

The Future Business Leaders of America did what came naturally in 1975-76—prepared for and studied future business opportunities. The club sponsor, Mrs. Sigler, brought in various speakers, including Mr. Brose from the Indiana Business College in Anderson, who discussed the school's bookkeeping, typing and shorthand curricula.

Officers for the 1975-76 school year were: Missy Marlow, pres.; Dawn Pike, vice-pres.; and, Julie Alexander, sec.

FHA Engages in Wide Range of Activities

December arrived with lots of good will and cheer, so FHA members went caroling at Community Hospital and the Willows Nursing Home to spread the happiness around. In February, Leann McKee was crowned Queen of the Sweetheart Dance, sponsored by FHA. The last two events of the year were a bake sale, from which all profit was donated to charity, and a trip to Hagerstown for a smorgasbord dinner.

Under the leadership of Pres. Linda Borum, Vice-Pres. Angel Blaylock, Sec. Patty Stinnett, and the sponsor, Mrs. Polly Pruitt, the FHA engaged in a wide range of activities during the 1975-76 school year. The club sold novelty items, such as candles, and stationery called "Little Darlings."

FEA Beters Parent, Student Understanding

The Future Educators of America sponsored perhaps one of the most unique 1975-76 school days. Instead of a parents' visitation night, an open house was held at school where the parents could take their children's places in class for the day. The day was typified by fathers struggling with grammar and mothers batting at volleyballs. FEA members also participated in cadet teaching at nearby junior highs and elementary schools and studied college manuals as clues to college size and curriculum.

"Playback '76" was the theme for the yearbook staff this year as they worked up their own salute to the bi-centennial and the 1976 school year. After being handicapped last year by a late start, staff members took advantage of summer vacation to begin advertising sales and worked up to the last school days, in order to provide the most complete coverage possible.

Preparation began early, with Terri Freeman and Mark Austin attending a yearbook workshop at IU. This year, interest and participation grew. Five students represented FHS at the workshop during the summer of '76.

As a matter of fact, today we're the world's largest producer of electrical systems for cars, trucks, buses, farm tractors, construction vehicles, boats, garden tractors . . . well, you name it.

Big deal, you say. Who thinks about electrical systems?
