WARNING CLASS OF 2010

Waving
Flag
- K'naan

When I get older, they'll call me freedom
Just like a Waving Flag.

When I get older, I will be stronger,
They'll call me freedom, just like a Waving Flag,
And then it goes back, and then it goes back,
And then it goes back

Born to a throne, stronger than Rome
but violent prone, poor people zone,
But it's my home, all I have known,
Where I got grown, streets we would roam.
But out of the darkness, I came the farthest,
Among the hardest survival.
Learn from these streets, it can be bleak,
Accept no defeat, surrender retreat,

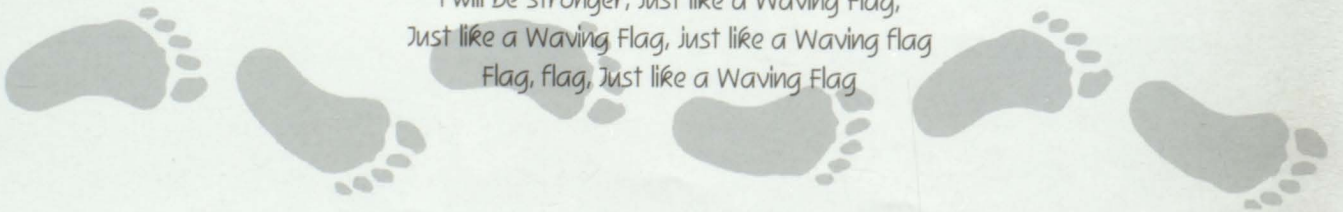

So we struggling, fighting to eat and
We wondering when we'll be free,
So we patiently wait, for that fateful day,
It's not far away, so for now we say

So many wars, settling scores,
Bringing us promises, leaving us poor,
I heard them say, love is the way,
Love is the answer, that's what they say,
But look how they treat us, Make us believers,
We fight their battles, then they deceive us,
Try to control us, they couldn't hold us,
Cause we just move forward like Buffalo Soldiers.

But we struggling, fighting to eat,
And we wondering, when we'll be free
So we patiently wait, for that faithful day,
It's not far away, but for now we say,

And everybody will be singing it
And you and I will be singing it
And we all will be singing it

When I get older, when I get older
I will be stronger, just like a Waving Flag,
Just like a Waving Flag, just like a Waving flag
Flag, flag, Just like a Waving Flag

“Do not go where the path may lead, go instead where there is no path and leave a trail.”

-Ralph Waldo Emerson

School Spirit

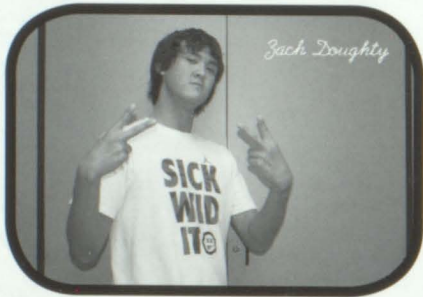

Most Memorable Moments

Heather Grinstead

My funniest memory was homecoming when we were in Mark's camper and Adrienne Hinds almost fell out and died because the back door flew open.

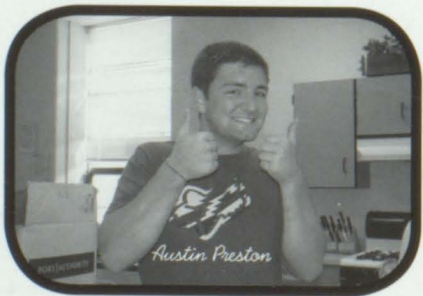

Zack Doughty

What i will miss most about high school is Mrs. Coryell and Coach Brobston

Kaylie Ritenour

My most embarrassing moment is losing my shoe to a Saint Bernard at Jessica Bodkin's house last year.

Austin Preston

My funniest memory was watching Seth Jackson flip when we all parked by his "muscle car."

Breanna Shively

My most embarrassing moment was when one day I was talking to Cody Friend and someone came up behind me and started messing with me. I thought it was Jessie Means so I swung my hand back to hit her and make her stop, but instead I wound up hitting Mr. Huntsinger.

Laura Funk

My funniest memory is Sophomore year when we were running to choir because we were going to be late and Amber Humes slipped on the floor and took Leigha down with her!

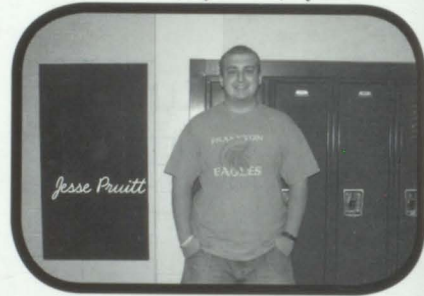

Aubigh Kelich

My most memorable moment of high school is definitely Homecoming night senior year. Junior year homecoming was pretty awesome too!

Zach Wesco

My funniest memory is when Kevin, Leigha, and I were at Kelsey Ashby's and Leigha was half asleep and sat up and said "you guys Pete and Repeat fell of a wall" and we yelled "NO they were on a boat." Then she continued to say "Humpty Dumpty sat on a log and we yelled "NO he fell off a wall" and she asked where someone was and we said "we have no idea where they are" and she asked "who are we talking about Pete and Repeat or Humpty Dumpty!"

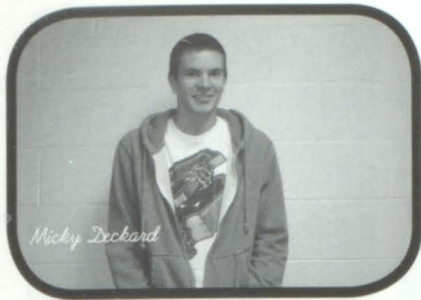

Jesse Pruitt

The things I will miss most about high school is my friends, and all of my teachers at Frankton. I will miss all of the great times, and good laughs that we had, but I will remember and cherish those memories forever

Kelsey Ashby

What i will miss most about high school is seeing all of my friends everyday, and having to leave everyone I've known my whole life. And I will miss the irresponsibility. It is now time to grow up!

Micky Deekard

My most memorable moment is playing Call of Duty with Brad Ashton, Zach Doughty, Mike Kelich. And watching while Mike got mad when he lost.

Patricia Roubesth

My funniest memory of high school was on spring break, in Panama.

Tyler Long

My most memorable moment during high school is when I led the team in tackles my sophomore year.

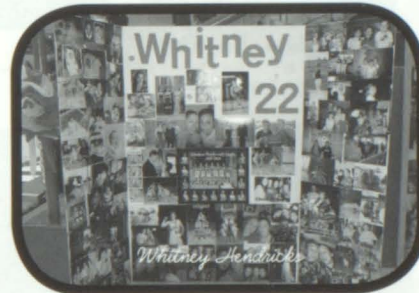

Jeselyn Jarrell

I will miss going out to eat with everyone after Friday night football games and basketball games the most!

Rachael Kiphart

What I will miss most about high school is the funny moments with my friends, the hard times we have to go through, the great memories we have made together, and the wonderful school lunches!

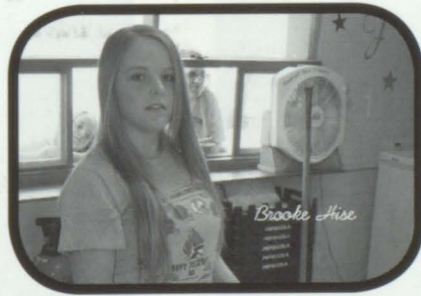

Whitney Hendrick

My funniest memory was in the summer of 2008, the basketball team went to Clarksville, IN for a summer basketball tournament. Tammie and Dennis Shively, drove down with Sam Willmann, Bre Shively, Kaylie Ritenour, Jeselyn Jarrell, and myself. They were so surprised when all of us knew every word to the song "my Humps" by the Black Eyed Peas.

Dalton Weismiller

I will miss the feeling of running out onto the football field under the lights on Friday nights and also stepping on the wrestling mats.

Brooke Hise

My funniest memories of my senior year were all the talks we had in AP English with Coryell, and Rachael Kiphart doing her voice impressions for her stories.

Adrienne Hinds

My most memorable moment of high school was on my 15th birthday party when Garth Gist and Dorian Thomas bought me a pinata and it was pouring down rain and everyone was playing basketball soaking wet and watching me fail at hitting a pinata.

Carson Breckenridge

My most embarrassing moment of high school was when I fell off a car and messed my face up my Freshman year.

Memories of 2009 season..

"Football has been great the past 4 years. My favorite part of this year was mud sliding on the field in the pouring rain after we beat Alex for Homecoming. I also enjoyed causing pain to the other team."

-Brandon Wood, #13

"Football this year was very fun. The team this year worked hard. My favorite part was beating Oak Hill."

-Carson Breckenridge, #86

"Football was really fun and exciting. My favorite part was shutting out Alex! Our first shut out in 5 years."

-Cory Greenlee, #40

"Football was an exciting year this season. I thought we did a lot better, but we needed to fix the small things. It was good overall. I really enjoyed smashing stuff this year!"

Frankton Christian Church is a nondenominational church patterned after the church of the New Testament whose purpose is to serve Christ in this community. We believe Jesus called His church into being as a unified body. In order to promote this unity, we have determined to preach, teach, and live the gospel contained in the Bible.

Frankton Christian Church is known for its warm, friendly spirit and Biblical preaching. We invite you to be part of our fellowship, but more importantly, Jesus invites you to become a Christian. Let us introduce you to Him and to the joy of being a part of the family of God.

Love the Taste. Taste the Love.

At Culver's® we can't think of anything better than serving up our creamy frozen custard and delicious classics cooked fresh the minute you order them. Which is why when we bring them to your table, they're always accompanied by a warm smile. So come on into your neighborhood Culver's and see for yourself. You might just be in love by the time you leave.

Dearest Josie,

When you were born, it was one of the happiest days of our lives. We've watched you grow from a happy baby to a wonderful little girl. You would come stay with us and we would play in the leaves in the fall, the snow in the winter, and play in the water pool in the summer. We had so much fun. You became a teenager, and we would go to all of your games and enjoyed it so much. You would come and spend the night, we would go out to eat, go shopping, talk, and just watch movies. You got your choice of Pizza King or spaghetti when you stayed. You got a car, and you were on your way. Then you became 18 and you're a beautiful young woman. We wish you a wonderful life as you graduate into a whole new world.

We love you and always will,
Grandma & Grandpa Mathias

In loving memory of
Andrew Joseph Kistler

Saturday, January 16, 2010 A.J. Kistler was shot and killed in his home. Rick Kistler, his older brother, accidentally shot him in the left shoulder, piercing his lung.

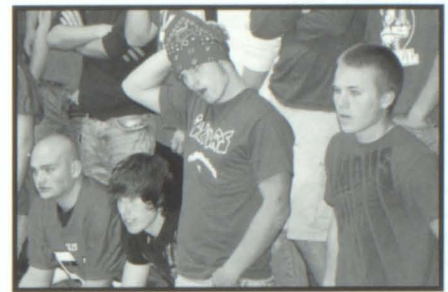

The emergency call came in just around 8:46 p.m., and the news spread quickly throughout our small town. Everyone was devastated and many rumors were heard. Students planned to meet at Frankton High School at 12:30 a.m. for a candlelight service.

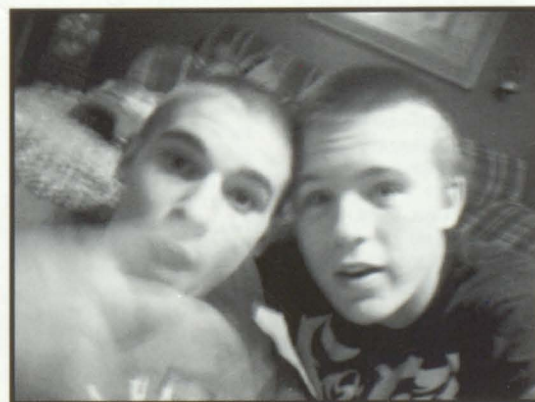

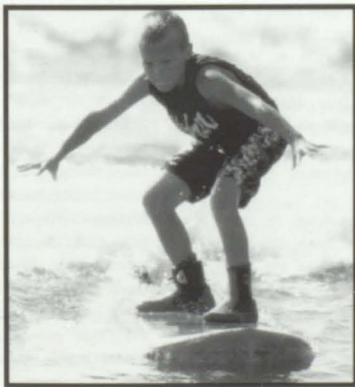

Over two hundred students and community members filled the parking lot in remembrance of A.J. Many people spoke that night, including Frankton High School softball coach, Jeremy Parker who led everyone in a prayer. Even A.J.'s parents, Karen and Rick Kistler Sr., attended the vigil that night. They talked about how he had loved everyone and they couldn't believe how many lives their son had touched.

They were both surprised at how many people had shown up and how quickly the word had spread.

"What we have once
enjoyed, We can never lose."

Letter from the Editor

First things first, Congratulations to the Class of 2010. We finally did it.

This yearbook has been chaos. We have had all the computer problems in the world along with the most hectic schedule to work with. We started the year with only 5 people knowing how to use the website. We started the year with nothing but teaching and re-teaching. We had to balance both the newspaper and the yearbook. It has been a crazy year, but one of the best.

Being yearbook editor has not only taught me to be a leader, but to manage my time and work with deadlines. All the times I thought we'd never finish this yearbook and we finally pulled through. We had our disagreements and arguments, but what do you expect with a bunch of seniors trying to work together.

I would like to thank my co-editor Kylie Graham, who has spent hours and hours trying to figure out the past two years of ads, bills, along with this year's personal ads. It was a mess, but she finally seemed to get the hang of it. Next I'd like to thank Candace McDonald, who not only finished the Student Life section, but also helped out with Underclass along with writing the story for the page about AJ Kistler. She's been my run to person when I needed an extra hand. I'd also like to thank the rest of the staff who sacrificed any free period to come in and help out, Josie Scott, Kaylie Ritenour, Kevin Funk, Zach Wesco, Falcia Roudebush, Arika Stigall, and Sam Meiser. A final thanks to Mr. Sipe who has done a lot of the behind the scenes stuff, including teaching us the website in which we use to produce this book.

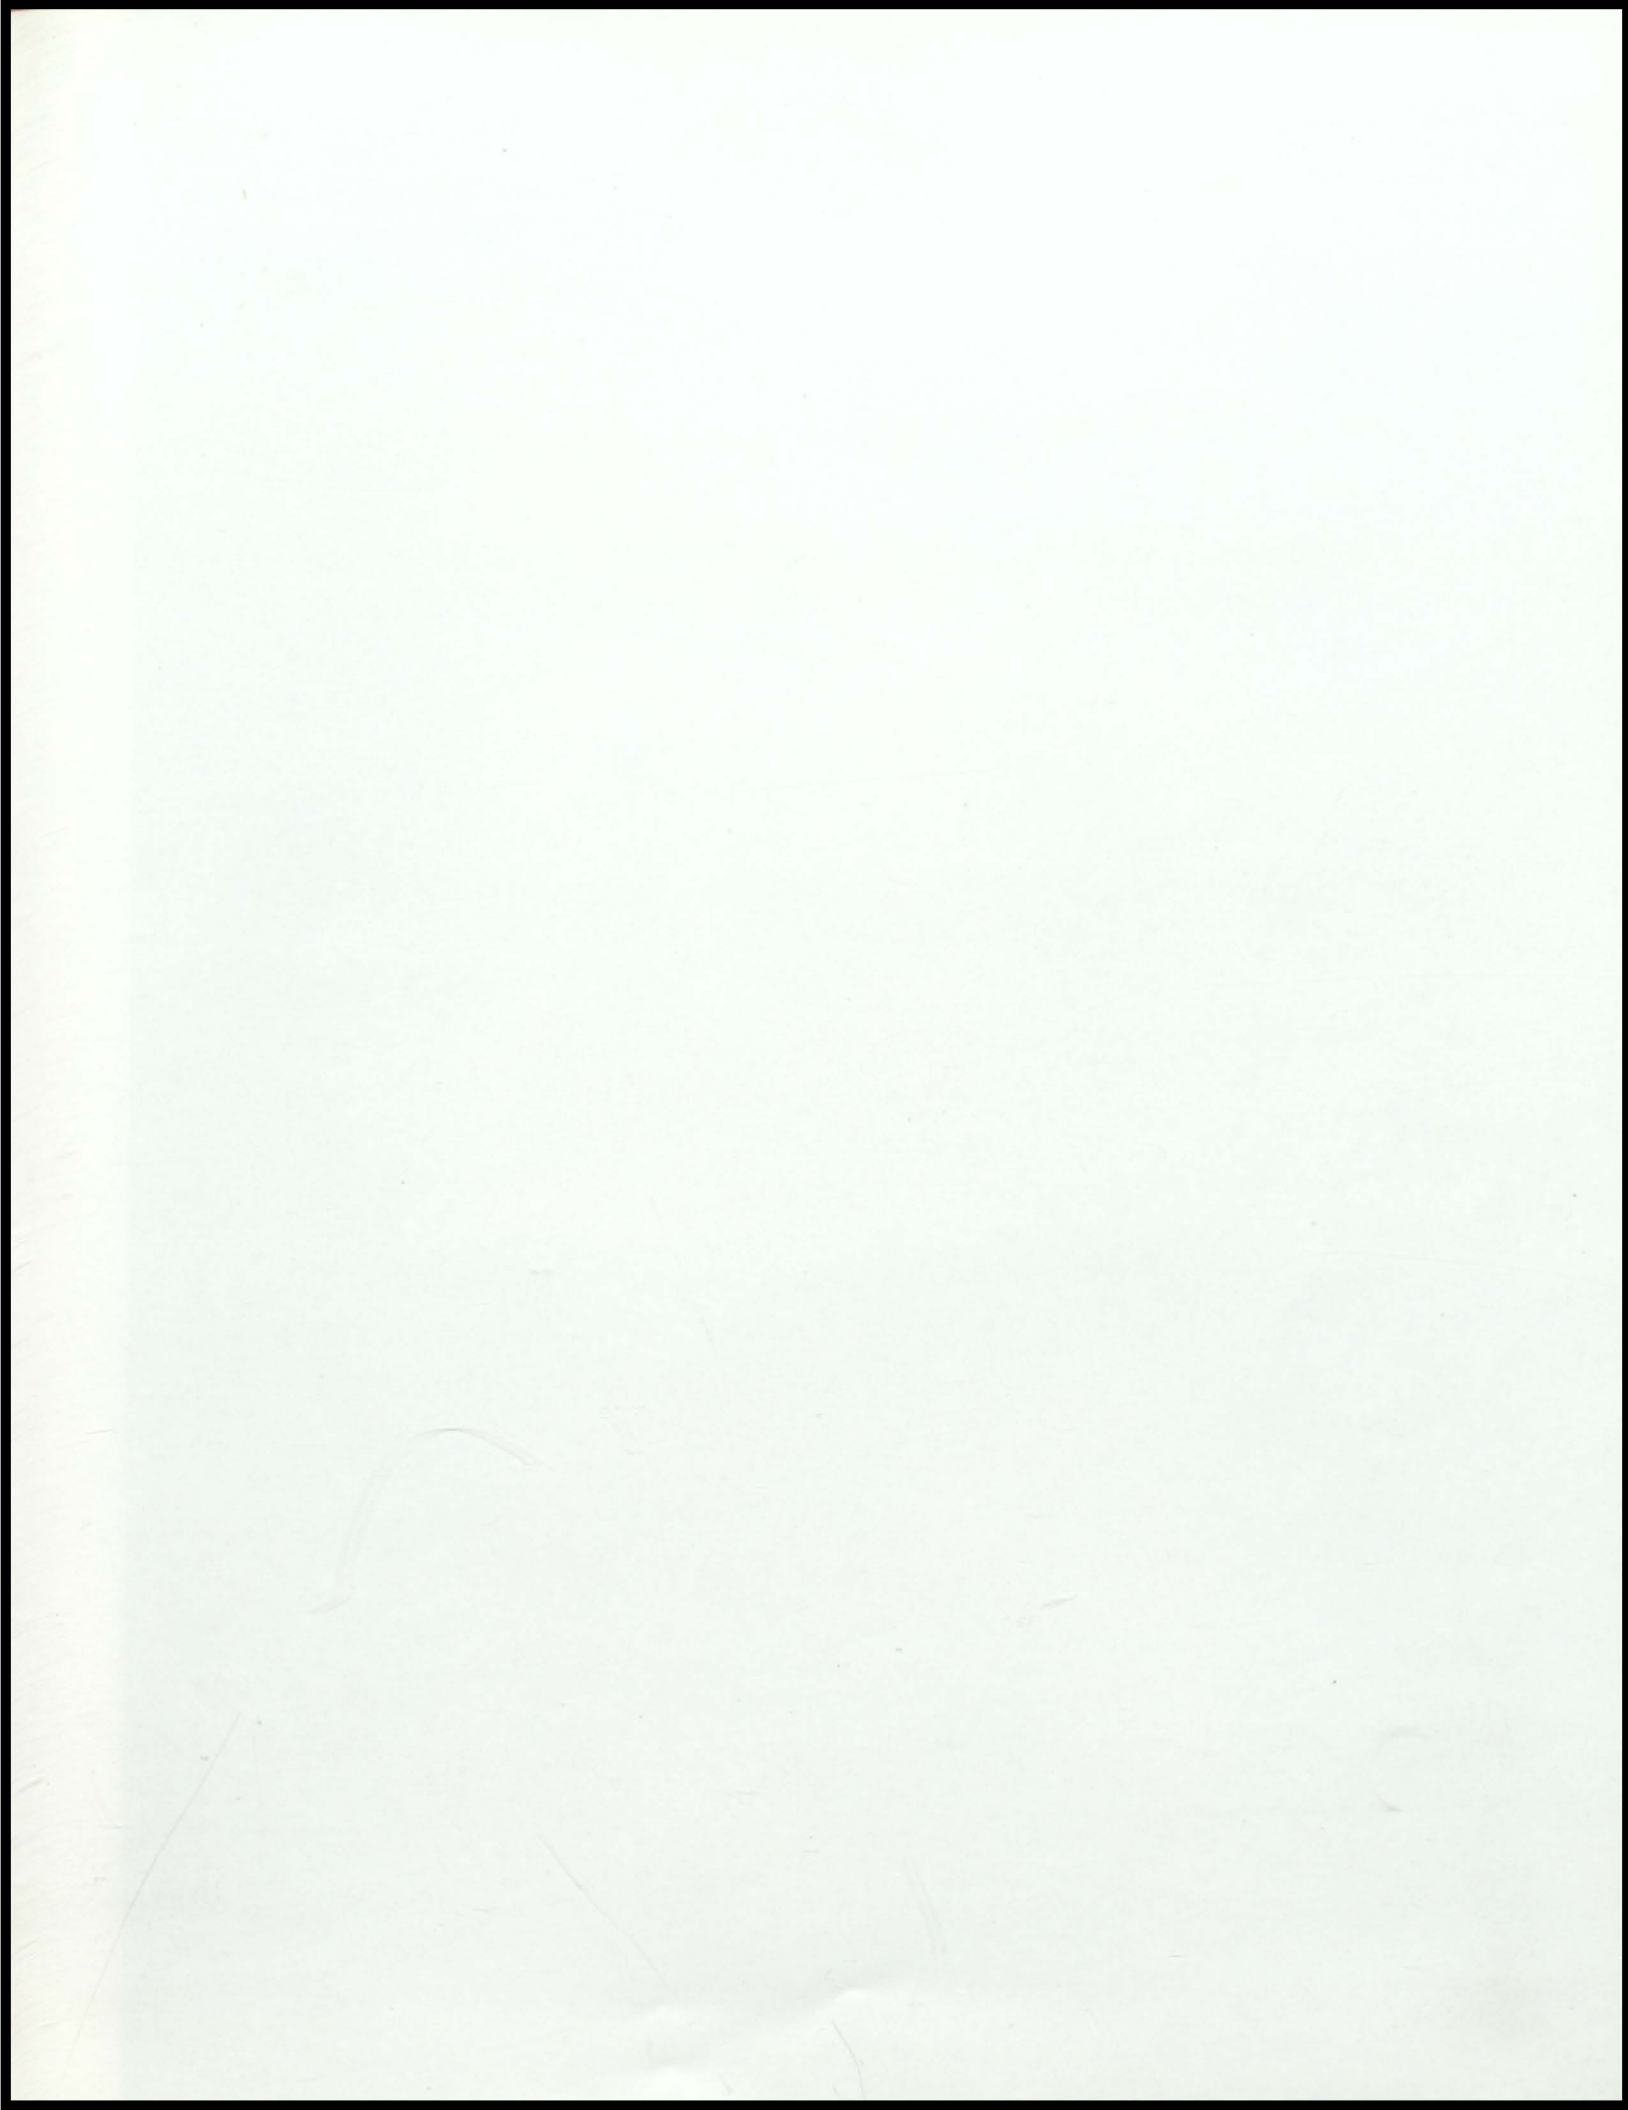

I am proud to be a part of the Eaglite for the last two years. My junior year I was the Underclass Editor and this year to be the Editor-in-chief. It's been an honor. Finally, to the Class of 2011, I wish you all the best.

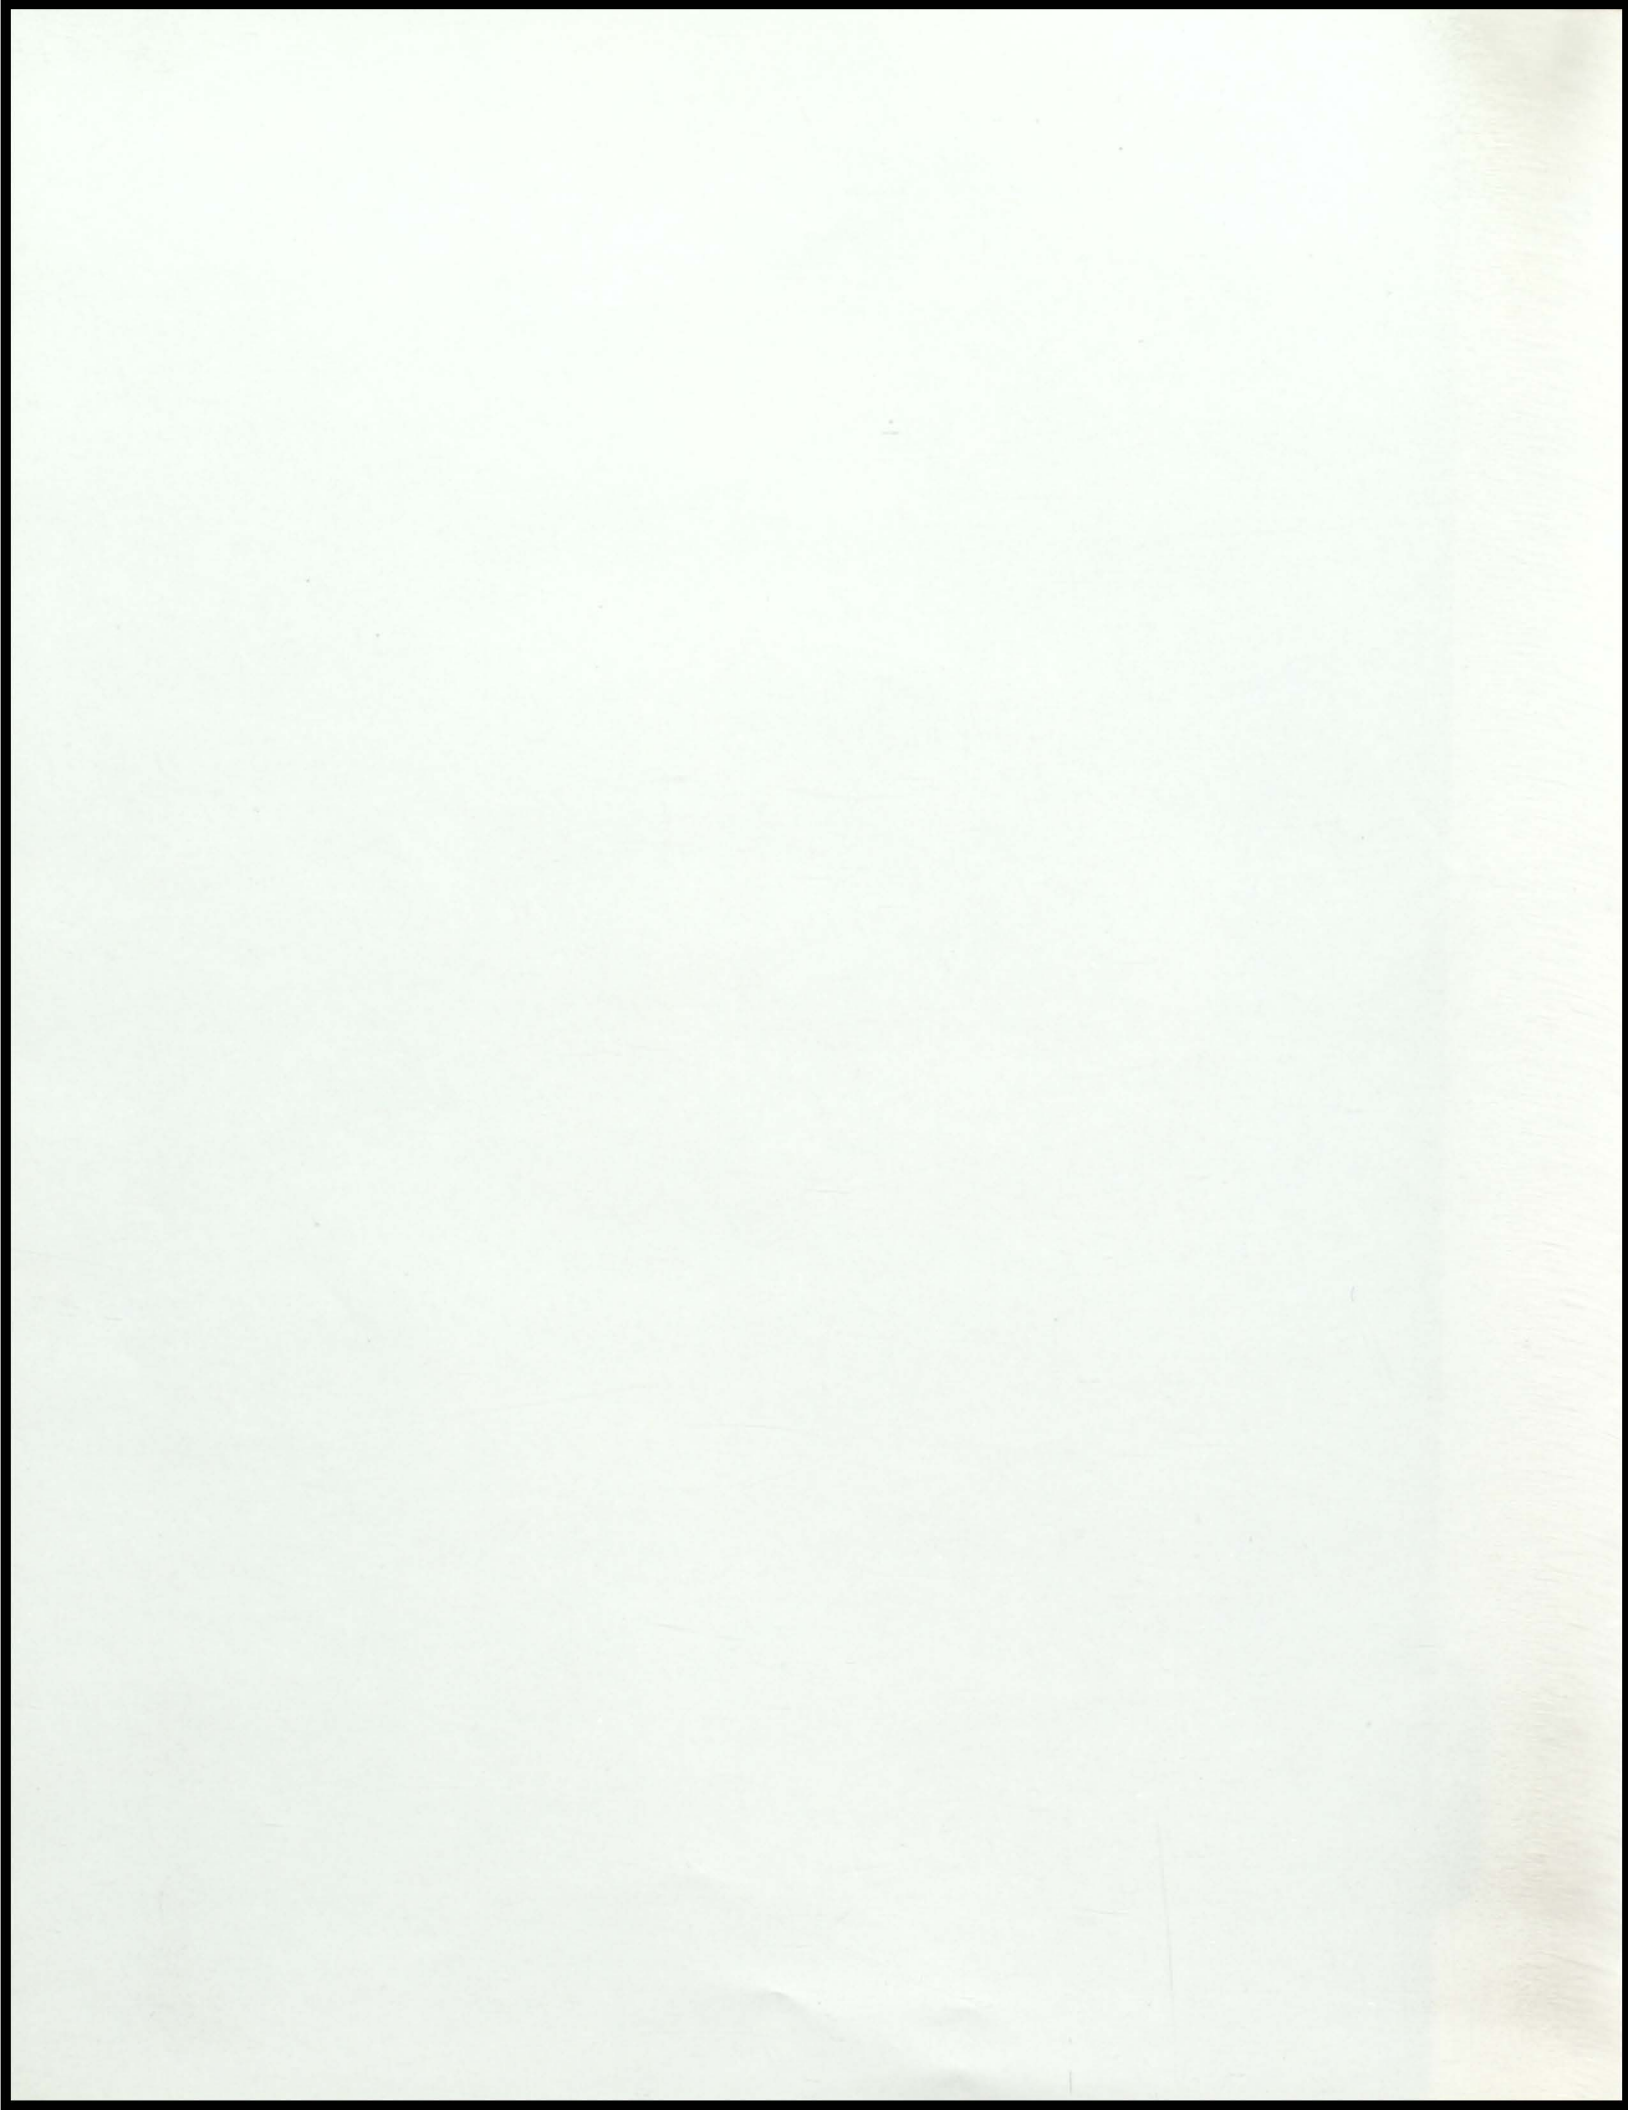

Heather Grinstead

2010 Eaglite Editor-In-Chief
